THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Roseburg, Oregon
"Back to Bethel" or "How to get back to God" is the sermon topic of Rev. H. P. Sconce at eleven. This is a message on the dramatic life of Jacob, "Modern Esau" is the topic Sunday night at eight. Are the Russians and Arabs descendants of Esau? There will be a beautiful baptismal service. Gene Yates has charge of the music for Sunday. The quarter will sing Sunday morning.
There will be several musical numbers including the quartet Sunday evening. The fully graded Bible school with Mrs. Bud Coult as superintendent meets each Sunday morning at 9:45. Seven discussion groups, with Mrs. Ruth Travillon as director, meet each Sunday evening at 6:45. "Personal Christian Living" is the study course being led by the pastor Wednesday nights.

Madison L. Jones,
Pioneer Oregon
Leader, Dies at 99

SALEM, Ore., July 23.—(AP)— Madison L. Jones, 99, who came across the plains from Indiana to Oregon in 1853 when he was four years old, died in Portland yesterday from a bronchial ailment.

Jones was a farmer north of Salem until 1920, when he went to the Arlington district of Eastern Oregon to become a wheat farmer. He retired when he was 80 years old.

Jones served in the State House of Representatives in 1882, was on the State Fair Board from 1915 to 1921, and was president of the Oregon Hop Growers Association in 1910.

His father died at the age of 97, and his wife died in 1939.
Survivors include two sons, Ronald, of Brooks, state president of the Farmers Union and a former state senator; and Ellis, who is publicity man for the State Unemployment Compensation Commission; and three daughters, Mrs. Anderson M.
Cameron and Mrs. John With-combe, both of Portland; and Mrs. Claire Jones Gray of Los Angeles.

Red Cross Issues
Call for Nurses

The Douglas County chapter of the American Red Cross has received an urgent call from the San Francisco office to recruit nurses experienced or qualified in infantile paralysis work for service in Los Angeles, Texas, North Carolina and other centers.
The nurses recruited for this service will become employees of the hospital or institution to which they are assigned and will receive salary and maintenance and work under condition and hour policies which have been established on a national basis by the American Red Cross and the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. It is expected that nurses who volunteer will agree to work for a minimum of two months, according to Russell M. Stephens, executive secretary.
District 11 of the Oregon State Nurses Association has been contacted by the Douglas County Chapter and has agreed to cooperate in this endeavor to find volunteers.

Qualified nurses interested are asked to contact the Douglas County Chapter office at the Armory in Roseburg between the hours of 9 and 4:30 on weekdays and from 9 to 12 on Saturdays.

Sutherlin-Nonpareil
Road Being Improved

An eight-mile strip of the Suth-erlin-Nonpareil county road Number 13, is being practically rebuilt this summer, according to a report from the Douglas County Court.

About a foot of base rock is being placed on the old oiled road and crushed rock will be added as soon as the road base is ready.
The road cannot be re-oiled this year, however, as it would not have time to settle sufficiently.

Churchwomen Ask
More Recognition

Shouldn't women of a household be part of it?

This is the question church-women will ask the First Assembly of the World Council of Churches, meeting in Amsterdam, Holland, Aug. 22 to Sept. 4.

The Council will be composed of 1400 representatives of some 140,000,000 Christians from 42 countries. But the women say that unless they can discover more significant channels for putting their talents to work within the church, the Council will fall short of its ideal, no matter how many countries and denominations are represented.

During the last two years, questionnaires were sent out by the World Council to churchwomen in 50 countries, asking opinions and recommendations. A final report to the Assembly will be shaped at a special council of 50 women church leaders meeting at Baarn, Holland, the middle of August.
