Meet Miss Laurelwood, 1948 Version

Little Sherrill Chapman, below, five-year-old, poses like a beauty queen—in fact she is. She was crowned Miss Laurelwood in a neighborhood beauty pageant staged by the younger set last week.

Picture by Paul Jenkins

She turned a toothless smile toward the News-Review photographer Thursday in an interview and across her front she wore a home-made banner which read, "Miss Laurelwood of '48, Miss America of '62." She didn't say a word.

She had plenty to say after being crowned, however, her first words were, "Mommie, did I do alright?"

The contest was held at the Fred Chapman home on Riverside Drive. The members of the audience acted as judges, and after a rather uncertain decision resorted to drawing straws to determine the lucky winner from among the four contestants.

When interviewed, little Miss Chapman wore a blue two-piece bathing suit, a royal blue crepe paper cape and a sparkling gold crown resplendent with her mother's best jewelry. Her feet were clad in white barefoot sandals, and she was presented with a bouquet of Sweet William.

Has Feminine Mind

As to her likes and dislikes, Sherrill claims white as her favorite color; when first questioned named ice cream as her favorite food, but woman-like later changed her mind in favor of cheese sandwiches. After posing in front of a bush of hydrangeas Sherrill decided "maybe" they were her favorite flower. As to future ambitions, she was again a little uncertain but said she would "just like to get married and have a home and then sorta be a nurse."

Blonde, brown-eyed Sherrill is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Chapman of 957 Riverside Drive. She has two sisters, Raina Lynn, seven, and Kay Suzanne, four. Her vital statistics are as follows: waist 22 in., wrist 5 in., lower arm 7 in., upper arm 7 1/2 in., ankle 7 in., thigh 14 in., hips 26 in., height 4 ft. 1 1/2 in., and weight 52 lbs.
