Becomes Bride at Beautiful Ceremony

Mrs. Tyler Evans

Picture by Master Studio

One of the loveliest weddings of the season was performed Sunday, July 11, when Miss Ramona Ann Felt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Felt, became the bride of Tyler B. Evans, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Evans, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, in the First Methodist Church. Rev. W. A. MacArthur performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of more than 300 guests.

The vows were solemnized before a beautiful white archway flanked by tall baskets of pink and white gladioli, white stock and delphinium, and tall white cathedral tapers in white candelabra.

As the guests assembled Mrs. Paul Geddes played softly on the organ and accompanied Miss Marilyn Felt who sang "Because" and at the close of the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer." Miss Felt wore a gown of pale blue broadcloth taffeta. The altar candles were lighted by Miss Nancy Radabaugh and Miss Irene Trapolis in gowns of identical styling; Miss Radabaugh in pink and Miss Trapolis in yellow. Both wore wristlets of matching carnations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a dress of ivory white satin, made en train, with a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves coming to a point over the wrists. Her tulle veil was edged with lace and held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of white carnations and freesias, centered with a white orchid and encircled with loops of white tulle.

Mrs. Ben Elwing, oldest sister of the bride, acted as matron of honor. She wore a dress of blue satin. Miss Gerry and Miss Sonia Felt, sisters of the bride, and Miss Nona Bruton and Miss Marilyn Dixon, were bridesmaids. Their dresses were identical in style to that of the matron of honor; the Misses Felt in pink satin, and Miss Bruton and Miss Dixon in blue satin. The attendants carried colonial bouquets of white carnations and sweetpeas looped with white tulle streamers. Little Karen Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Briggs of Corvallis, and Marilyn Elwing, niece of the bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Elwing, were flower girls. They wore dresses of pink satin and carried bouquets of white carnations. Robert Gray of Temple City, Calif., cousin of the bridegroom, acted as best man and ushers were John Felt, Daun Lillard, Duane Pope and Gordon Singleton.

The bride's mother chose a pale aqua dress with a white lace-trimmed hat and white accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a rose-colored afternoon dress with a gray hat and accessories. Both mothers wore gardenias.

A reception, immediately following the ceremony was held at the Felt home on Harvard Avenue. The bride's table, beautifully decorated by Mrs. Horace Berg, was covered with a pink and white lace cloth, caught up with nosegays of pink carnations and white ribbon streamers. It was centered with a large four-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, and flanked by bowls of white delphinium. Lovely bouquets of pink and white gladioli and delphinium were attractively arranged about the rooms.

The cake was cut in the traditional manner by the bridal couple and served by Mrs. Horace Berg. Mrs. Clyde Carstens and Mrs. Ned Dixon presided over the punch bowls and were assisted by Miss Irene Trapolis, Miss Nancy Radabaugh, Miss Shirley Wilson, Miss Mary McKinney, Miss Jean Elliott, and Miss Edith Polrot. Miss Lorraine Losee had charge of the lorraine cake and Miss Ardyth Andrus assisted with the gifts.

For traveling the bride chose a gray suit with black accessories and a white orchid corsage. Her jewelry was a diamond sunburst brooch, a gift of the bridegroom. After a wedding trip to Crater and Diamond Lakes, Mount Hood, the Oregon Caves and the Oregon Coast, the couple are now at home to their friends at 1609 Brown Avenue.

The couple is well known in this community having both graduated from Roseburg High School, the bridegroom with the class of '47 and the bride with the class of '48. The bridegroom also attended Oregon State College and Education at Ashland.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included: Mrs. W. Ballard of Los M-linos, Calif., grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Albert Bustam of Long Beach, Calif., great aunt of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. William T. Evans Sr. of El Monte, Calif., grandparents of the bridegroom Mr. and Mrs. James S. Gray and son, Robert, of Temple City, Calif.; aunt, uncle and cousin of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. William D. Cowen of Lakeport, Calif., aunt and uncle of the bridegroom, Charles E. Evans of Los Angeles, Calif., uncle of the bridegroom, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Hewx of Portland, cousins of the bridegroom, and Earl McFarlan of Forest Grove.
