

Fuller Johnson To Head Oregon Elks' Program for Vets

Fuller Johnson, Roseburg, has been appointed by State Elks Association President A. N. Nicolai, McMinnville, as chairman of the Elks veterans program for Oregon, according to an announcement by Exalted Ruler Harry Pinniger.

The work, according to Johnson, will entail primarily the sponsoring of entertainment at the Veterans Hospitals in Roseburg and Portland, and the committee is looking forward to assisting at the Medford Veterans Hospital when it is open.

The entertainment includes athletic events, such as boxing and wrestling shows and other program features that might be available. The boys are furnished cigarettes prior to the events, and prizes are furnished to be awarded in their own athletic engagements.

Frank Wickham has been appointed by Johnson as chairman for the Roseburg hospital, the position held last year by Johnson. On Wickham's committee are Ray Christian, Frank Norton, Al Scott, Allen Cordon and Jewett Taylor.

Plans have been made for the Roseburg Elks band to play an open air concert at the hospital August 16. Birthday parties are sponsored by the Lady Elks. A party scheduled for Saturday, July 31, will be sponsored by the Lakeview Elks.

The State Elks Association is planning to build an outdoor boxing arena at the Veterans Hospital picnic grove this summer.

Johnson said that there are four Oregon districts, and in each of these there will be committees on veterans entertainment. Klamath Falls, he said, is planning to send an entertainment troop to Roseburg to put on a show in the near future.

TRAFFIC FINES LEVIED

Justice of Peace Thomas C. Hartfield Friday imposed a fine of $10 against Gail B. Fenwick and another of $15 against Asa M. Coon, both on charges of truck overloads.

WILL STUDY IN CHINA—Dave Austin, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Austin, Roseburg, will leave from San Francisco July 30 for Canton, China. The 22-year old student, who has been attending Eastern Washington College of Education, will attend Lingnan University as an exchange student. He will study Far Eastern history and the Chinese language at the university.

Loggers, Officials Talk Over Fire Prevention

Douglas County logging operators have talked over fire prevention problems with officials of the State Department of Forestry and the Douglas Forest Protective Association in meetings at Canyonville and Roseburg this week. The final meeting will be held at Drain tonight. Here for the meetings were Dwight Phipps and Jim Walker of the state forester's office at Salem.

DAMAGES DEMANDED

Harold D. Toy has filed an action in Circuit Court against Norman Williams to collect alleged damages resulting from an accident involving Toy's car, driven by his wife, Juanita Toy, and the defendant in Sutherlin May 10. The plaintiff, charging negligence, asks $450 damages plus $150 attorney fees.

AFL Opposes Rep. Gile For His Sales Tax Stand

PORTLAND, July 23.—The State Federation of Labor launched a drive today to defeat two state legislators—Rep. Earl Hill of Lane County and Rep. Robert C. Gile of Douglas County.

James T. Marr, executive secretary of the state AFL, said he would campaign personally against the two men because of their support of a sales tax last year. The sales tax was defeated in a special election.
