Greek Red Army Smashed; Leader Flees to Albania

ATHENS, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Communist leader Markos Vafiades and his rebel government were reported in press dispatches today to have fled into Albania before the surging Greek offensive in the Grammos mountains. Greek divisions have compressed his insurgent territory adjoining Albania to an area containing only four villages of any size. The Rebels started seven counterattacks, but all were beaten down.

A communique said Vafiades' forces mounted their attacks in the Nestorian area in an effort to hold the vital Aliakmon river valley following the loss of Steno yesterday. Steno was the key to Markos supply route from Albania.

National forces followed up their most successful week of the two-year war with advances so swift they were unable to tabulate enemy dead and captured the war booty, the communique said.

Earlier, remnants of Markos men were reported fleeing toward Albania after a 48-hour hammering by Greek army forces.

Frontline dispatches today said the army is pushing forward supplies and equipment quickly in an effort to prevent Markos from regrouping.

Old Artillery Shell Kills Seven Children

BERLIN, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Seven German children, from two to 10 years old, perished at Cologne while playing with an old artillery shell they found, the British-licensed German press service said today.

Women Leading In Top Honors At Olympic Games

By TED SMITS
OLYMPIC STADIUM, Wembley, England, Aug. 6.—(AP)—Unlike Olympic games of the past, no single dominant hero is emerging in 1948—and a women's name will lead all the rest.

When Mal Whitfield finished third in the 400-meter run, the last man with a chance to become a double winner in track lost out.

So it is a woman's Olympics—Mrs. Fannie Blankers-Koen and Michelle Ostermeyer in track already have two gold medals and can win more, and Mrs. Victoria Draves and Karen Harup in swimming are on the way.

The London games will have no man's name to add to the lustrous list that includes Jessie Owens in 1936, Eddie Tolan in 1932, Percy Williams in 1928, and Paavo Nurmi in 1924.

The only man who has come close to two single victories—excluding the relays—is Arthur Wint of Jamaica, who was close second to Whitfield of the United States in the 800, and who won the 400 in '48, upsetting not only Whitfield but favored Herb McKenzie of Jamaica as well.

Coaches Disappointed
Yesterday's lack of American track winners was compensated for by smashing victories by five American shells in the Thames rowing and Dr. Sammy Lee's championship in high diving.

Both head U. S. Coach Dean Cromwell and Whitfield himself were bitterly disappointed in the outcome of the 400 meters.

"I don't know what happened to me," said Whitfield. "I guess I must have been too sure of winning."

Said Cromwell: "The last four men in the 400 ran a ridiculous race."

The last four included Whitfield, timed in .46.9. "They just didn't run," Cromwell went on. "All three were perfectly fresh at the end of the race."

With the games half over—the end Aug. 14—the United States has riveted down another great triumph in men's track. America has won eight championships out of 18 contested, with possibly three more victories to come.

Sweden is second with three. In the unofficial team stand-

'Remote Control' Love Finds Way

Ingeborg Schueter, 25-year-old fraulein of Berlin, looks at picture of her fiance, Joseph Conti, 31, an ex-G. I. from Richmond, Ind., who wooed and won her in a two-year exchange of letters. The U. S. Consulate turned down Joe's application to bring her to U. S. under the "G. I. Sweetheart Act" on grounds that the law was not meant to facilitate "love by remote control." The couple will meet and marry in England.
