MISS JUNE GOETZ BECOMES BRIDE OF CHARLES R. WALLS

Miss June Goetz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Goetz, became the bride of Charles R. Walls, July 2, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hebard, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. Rev. W. A. Sylvester of St. Paul's Lutheran Church performed the impressive double ring ceremony at 7:30 o'clock in the presence of relatives and close friends of the couple.

A fan shaped lattice covered with greenery and red roses flanked by baskets of red lilies and pale blue candles formed the background for the nuptials.

Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Frank Stronach played softly on the piano and accompanied Mrs. Phyllis Bartzel who sang "Because" and "At Dawning." Mrs. Stronach also lighted the candles.

The bride was lovely in a halberina length dress of ice blue satin, made with three quarter length sleeves. Her corsage was of red roses. Mrs. Roy Hebard was matron. She was gowned in a jersey floral print dress with white accessories and a gardenia corsage.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. Sweetpeas, lilies and other mixed flowers formed the attractive table decoration, and the wedding cake, topped with red roses, was cut by the couple in the traditional manner and served by Mrs. R. Kaine. Mrs. Anna Kasper presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. C. Low had charge of the gifts.

After a short wedding trip along the Oregon coast, the newlyweds are now at home to their friends on Walnut Lane.

Out of town guests attending the wedding included: Mr. and Mrs. John S. Walls, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Walls, Mrs. Frank Stronach and Mrs. Phyllis Bartzel, all of Eugene.
