Miss Cecelia H. Watzig, daughter of Mrs. Hedwig Watzig, Roseburg, became the bride of Harry L. Harris, son of Mrs. Dorothy Harris of McCammon, Idaho, at two o'clock the afternoon of July 17, at St. Joseph's Catholic Church with Rev. Urban Riedon performing the impressive nuptial mass. Croft lilies and white gladioli decorated the altar.

Miss Annaloris Ward played softly on the organ as the guests assembled.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Walter G. Kasper, of Portland, was beautiful in a gown of tiny tufted Swiss or gandy fashioned with pinnacles overskirt at the waistline. The full train and basque bodice were edged with a dainty ruffle. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place with a Mary Stuart cap and she carried a cascade bouquet of stephanotis centered with a large orchid.

Mrs. Bruce W. Carter, Roseburg, was matron of honor for her sister and wore a gown of pink moire with matching pink picture hat. Mrs. Francis E. Watzig, of Portland, sister-in-law of the bride, was bridesmaid and wore a gown of blue moire with a matching blue headpiece. Both the matron of honor and bridesmaid carried nosegays of blue and pink delphinium and larkspur. Bruce W. Carter, brother-in-law of the bride, was best man, and ushers were Francis E. Watzig, brother of the bride; Joe Scallion, John Felt Jr., Harry Parreter II and Phil Scallion.

The bride's mother wore a gray silk gown with a corsage of deep pink carnations worn at the waistline joining the draped skirt. The bridegroom's mother was unable to attend the wedding on account of illness. The bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Anna M. Kasper of Portland, wore a rose-colored ensemble with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's mother at 435 South Main street. The bride's table was centered with a beautiful four-tiered wedding cake, decorated by Mrs. Paul Jenkins, who also arranged the gorgeous floral decorations about the rooms. Mrs. Walter G. Kasper, Portland, aunt of the bride, cut the cake.

Pouring and assisting at the reception were Mrs. Washington Hughes, Mrs. W. H. Richardson, Miss Gladys H. Strong, Mrs. O. T. Carter, Mrs. Don Young, Mrs. A. G. Kasper, aunt of the bride;

Miss Rose Hurska, Mrs. O. A. Kennerly Jr., Mrs. Sidney Fredrickson, Mrs. Robert Harris, Mrs. B. L. Martin, Miss Helen Larkin, Miss Kay Ward and Mrs. S. McDonald. The guest book was in charge of Mrs. Eugene Powell.

For traveling the bride chose a sky-blue suit with black hat and black accessories. Following a honeymoon to southern and coastal points, the couple will reside at Winston, where they are building a new home.

Out-of-town guests attending were Mrs. Anna M. Kasper, Miss Rose Hurska, Mr. and Mrs. Walter G. Kasper and children, Beverly, Gerry and Jeanette; Mr. and Mrs. Edward J. Kasper, Mr. and Mrs. Francis E. Watzig and Miss Cecelia Fennell, all of Portland; Mrs. P. W. Wessler of Indiana; Miss Elsie Sandman, New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kimball, Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Glen W. Dodge, Canyonville.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Harris are prominent members of Roseburg's younger set. The bride was graduated from Saint Mary's Academy and attended University of Oregon. The bridegroom served five years with the U. S. Army in the South Pacific Theatre of Operations and is now labor foreman in the Utility Department at the Roseburg Veterans Hospital.

candles, was topped by a miniature merry-go-round. Lovely gifts were presented to Jimmy from his brother, Bruce, and the following guests: Michael Cacy, Ricky Crocker, Linda and Judith Burt, Rita, Lawrence and Christina Bennett, Linda Trusty, Judy and Johnny Hebard, Carolyn, Janet and Phillip Wassom, Carol and Glen Clark and Rose Ann Travis. Besides those assisting, others present were Mrs. William Burt, Mrs. Kelly Bennett, Mrs. Jack Trusty, Mrs. Roy Hebard, Mrs. Phillip Wassom and Mrs. C. G. Wassom.

Games were played and later lovely refreshments were served. PIVNIC SUPPER IS ENJOYED AT PATRICK GARDEN ON SATURDAY
