

Ugly Facts of Inflation Brush-Off May Haunt Republican Campaign

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON—If President Truman had any previous doubts about which was the worst Congress, they should all be gone by now.

For the brush-off which the Republican leadership has given to his anti-inflation proposals was really of hurricane proportions. It swept everything he laid on the table right into the waste-baskets.

If by so doing the congressmen think they can go home leaving clean desks and clear consciences behind them, they may be headed for unpleasant surprises. The facts and figures which administration leaders finally got together for presentation to Congress may rise like ghosts out of the scrapheaps into which they were swept, to haunt the homing congressmen in the months and years ahead.

President Truman pointed out in his press conference statement that Senate and House Agriculture Committees never even met to see if there was anything they might do to increase food supplies or cut down prices to the consumer.

House Ways and Means and Senate Finance Committees, which handle tax matters, did not meet to consider President Truman's suggestions for the return of excess corporations profits taxes.

The House Banking and Currency Committee went through the motion of holding hearings on the proposed anti-inflation bill. But this committee under Chairman Jesse Wolcott of Michigan refused to receive testimony from Secretary of Agriculture Brannan, Secretary of Commerce Sawyer, Secretary of Interior Krug.

Wolcott, completely dominating his committee, went ahead in his own way to introduce his own version of a credit-control bill. It may do some good over the long haul. But don't expect to take a copy home, hand it to your wife and expect that she will ever buy with it any more groceries for any less money.

On the other side of the Capitol, Chairman Charles W. Tobey's Senate Banking and Currency Committee turned in the only praiseworthy record of the special Congress, not only on in-

Money Judgments Asked in 4 Suits

Austin J. Ellis Jr. and Jane Doe Ellis, his wife, and Donald D. and Jane Doe Higgenbotham, his wife, have been named in two money action suits filed in Circuit Court.

John C. Reese and Glen Beach, doing business as West Side Grocery, ask for a judgment for $390 allegedly advanced to the plaintiffs July 13, 1948, and for $282.17 as the balance alleged due for goods, wares and merchandise sold the plaintiff between Oct. 4, 1947, and July 31, 1948.

In the second action, Ed A. Radigan asks for a judgment for $258.50 for goods, wares, and merchandise allegedly sold to defendant from Dec. 30, 1947, plus a claim of C. M. McDermott for $94.50, turned over to the plaintiff.

United Petroleum Corporation, doing business as U. S. Tire Stores, has filed a claim against Milo Claughton to collect $1,386.90 plus interest from Jan. 18, 1948, as the balance alleged unpaid on goods, wares and merchandise. Hazel Turpin, in a complaint against Frank Koepke, asks for a judgment of $796 for alleged services performed in caring for the defendant's household and minor children, and for $250 for prosecuting the case.

Bobbin' 'Round

By BOB PEMBERTON

The most cussed and discussed column in the News-Review...

It is hard to criticize the efforts of people in the sports world because of the time and labor they put out, even though this column criticizes for a better show for fans. The greatest drawback is that you make enemies. These enemies, however, must be placed below the idea of the sport. With this in mind, and only this in mind, does Bobbin' 'Round ever criticize.

A personal invitation... One of the most under-publicized boxing cards of the season will be held at the Roseburg Armory tomorrow night. Now here is a card worth your money. Thirty fast and furious rounds of rate number one boxer's at prices that are right: $1.50 for ring-side, $1.20 general admission and .75c for kids.

In the main event George O'Rourke of Frisco, 185 pound heavyweight, will meet Leo Talbot of Portland. In his last appearance at Roseburg, Talbot defeated Gordon McKay of Klamath Falls and put on the kind of show fans like—clever boxing with a left hook that stuns.

Bucky O'Conner, Roseburg, 137 lbs., meets Sammy Benton, 138 lbs., of Portland. In his last twenty-four fights, O'Conner has lost but four and looms as Southern Oregon's best welterweight. "Told you so! Last Thursday, August 5th, Bobbin' 'Round said, "Sutherland will win league honors." If you have noticed they play in the District playoffs in Cottage Grove. What else can be said!

FOOTBALL SHOES! Who needs football shoes at the school price of $9.95? What about footballs at the school price of $7.50 to $20? This football season stands will not be filled to see you "warm the bench" because of faulty shoes. No Sir! You need sturdy shoes to twist and turn in, like the ones at Umpqua Valley Hardware, Sports Dept. Also be wise by shopping early for gym trunks, shirts and shoes at your local sports center, UMPQUA VALLEY HARDWARE, 202 N. Jackson, Phone 73.

will be on the market soon. Patterned after the wartime "walkie-talkie," the two-way radio is expected to reach quantity production in the near future, and the Federal Communications Commission said yesterday it will begin licensing citizen-broadcasters shortly. The commission said it will take suggestions on regulations governing the new "stations" until October 1. Each set will require an FCC license.
