Achievement Day Contests Slated On August 26th

The annual 4-H canning and gardening Achievement Day will be held August 26 at Junior High School in Roseburg. This day, which is for 4-H members in canning, gardening and rose and flower garden projects, as well as those who wish to participate in home economics contests, will begin at 9 a. m. Thursday.

The exhibits are to be in place by 10 o'clock, but a few of the contests will start earlier.

Some of the contests that will take place and the times are as follows: The senior and junior dollar dinner contests, which begins at 9 o'clock; the senior and junior breadbaking contest, which will begin between 9 and 10; the cake baking contest beginning at 1 p. m., and the Spreckels canning contest, both divisions also starting at 1 p. m. Food demonstrations will be taking place throughout the day as the contestants arrive.

Another event scheduled in the day's events will be a canning judging contest, which will take place upon the completion of the canning and cake baking contests in the afternoon.

Winners of the various contests will be eligible to compete on a state-wide basis at Salem at the State Fair next month. In addition to these, oustanding exhibits of canning and gardening will be selected to show at the State Fair.

Anyone interested in seeing good canning and 4-H contestants at work is cordially invited to drop in anytime during the day, said Frank von Borstel, 4-H Club Agent.

Another Premium Due on Reinstated GI Insurance

Northwest veterans who reinstated their G. I. insurance just before the July 31 "easy reinstatement" deadline should pay another monthly premium to the Veterans Administration immediately to prevent the policy lapsing again, the VA said today.

Most veterans who reinstated their National Service Life Insurance last month paid only the required two-months' premiums, the VA explained. Under G. I. insurance regulations, one premium covered the 30-day grace period before the policy lapsed and the other the month of reinstatement.

Therefore, veterans who reinstated to beat the July 31 deadline paid only for July insurance protection, with another payment due sometime in August according to the due date of their policy.

To avoid risk of unknowingly allowing their insurance to again lapse, the VA urges veterans to make another payment immediately.

G. I. insurance premiums may be paid monthly, quarterly, semi-annually or annually. Advance payments, other than monthly, are discounted by the VA and result in even greater economy to the G. I. policy holder.
