Marry in Garden Setting

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan C. Hoyer

The beautiful garden of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Walker in Eugene was the scene of the lovely twilight wedding ceremony for Miss June Lee Hughes and Ivan C. Hoyer, Saturday, August 14.

Rev. Hugh Pennington, pastor of the Presbyterian Church at Cottage Grove, performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends.

Mrs. Gordon Corner of Eugene softly played, "I Love You Truly" and "Always" preceding the traditional wedding march. The vows were exchanged before an arch of greenery and white gladioli flanked by tall baskets of fern and white gladioli.

The bride, given in marriage by her step-father, Carl A. Sudrow, was beautiful in a powder blue crepe two-piece dress embroidered in fell flowers with applied white net bows. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid and shower of white satin ribbons knotted with stephanotis. She wore a matching spray of stephanotis in her hair and carried a white silk handkerchief, which had been her grandmother's.

Mrs. Brush Bush, sister of the bridegroom, was maid of honor and wore a light gray, crepe dress. She wore a corsage of pink carnations with a white center. Doane Walker, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a soft pink shantung dress with a corsage of white carnations and a pink center. Bruce Bush acted as best man and usher and wore Lowery Hoyer, brother of the bridegroom, and Wayne and Dale Walker, cousins of the bride.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Sudrow of Cottage Grove. She was graduated from Union High School, Cottage Grove, in 1948 and is employed at the Hoyer Accountant office. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hoyer, Cottage Grove, was graduated from Union High School in 1945 and the Presbyterian Church at Cottage Grove, performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends.

An informal reception followed the ceremony. The three-tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, was cut by the bride and groom, and served by the bride's aunt, Mrs. Ralph Walker, of Eugene. Mrs. C. W. Ohlsen, Salem, aunt of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl. Mrs. E. L. Clark, Cottage Grove, had charge of the guest book. Mrs. T. S. Hodges, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Vera Luken, a cousin, assisted with the serving.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Hoyer and Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Ohlsen, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hill and Mrs. T. D. Hodges, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. V. B. Hoyer and son, Lowery; Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Bush, Mr. and Mrs. George White, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Clark, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Monteth, Rev. and Mrs. Hugh Pennington, Miss Dorothy Sugar, Miss Rose Underwood, Miss Rita Quaglia, Harold Witherspoon, Richard Cantonmine, Ronald Leathers, Bryon Foster, Mike Quaglia, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Robertson and Mr. and Mrs. Carl A. Sudrow, all of Cottage Grove.

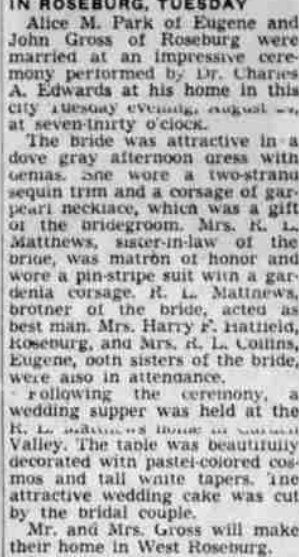

Following a wedding trip to Vancouver, B. C., and other points of interest in Canada and the Pacific Northwest, the couple will be at home to their friends at 141 N. L. Street, Cottage Grove.

Mrs. Margaret Callen ENTERTAINS BRIDAL PARTY AT LOVELY AFFAIR Mrs. Margaret Callen entertained at a lovely party at her home on Brown avenue Saturday night to compliment her niece, Miss Phyllis Hinsdale, and Robert Baum, who were married the following day at St. George's Episcopal Church.

The party followed the wedding rehearsal and the bride and bridegroom-elect presented gifts to their attendants, after which Mrs. Callen served lovely refreshments to the guests of honor, Miss Hinsdale and Mr. Baum; Mrs. Jean Hutchinson, Mrs. Calvin Combs, Jean Thibault, Beverly Nichols, Pat Fisher, Betty O'Neil, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baum, Mr. and Mrs. George Hinsdale, Mr. and Mrs. David Baum, Mr. and Mrs. William Fredericks, Bob Kreil, Tom Jacobson, Richard Baum, Frank Baum and Charles Cockleiras.
