VERA SMITH BECOMES BRIDE OF JAMES AMBROSE FRIDAY, AUGUST 20TH

Miss Vera Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irving D. Smith of Roseburg, became the bride of James Ambrose, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Ambrose of Roseburg Friday evening, August 20, at six-thirty o'clock in the garden at the bride's home. Rev. Kenneth W. Knox, pastor of the First Christian Church of Roseburg performed the impressive ceremony in the presence of 50 relatives and friends of the couple.

Preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Albert Stingley and Mrs. Joyce Shutt played an accordion duet, "I Love You Truly," after which they played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to take its place.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a pale pink marquisette formal gown over satin. She carried a bouquet of carnations. Miss Eliza Smith was maid of honor for her sister and wore a pale blue formal gown and carried a bouquet of gladiol and carnations. Clyde Ambrose acted as best man for his brother.

Both the mothers wore floral print gowns with gardenia corsages.

A reception followed at which time the beautifully decorated wedding cake, made by the bride's mother, was cut by the bride couple. Mrs. Smith served the ice cream.

Out-of-town guests included Mrs. G. E. Bales, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. and Mrs. Ray Ambrose and daughter, Beverly (brother and sister-in-law of the bride); Mrs. and Mrs. John N. Wright, of Loveland, Colo., grandfather of the bride; Mrs. Milton Walter, grandmother of the bride; Robert and Kenneth Walter, uncles of the bride, and Mr. and Mrs. William H. Wright, uncle and aunt of the bride, all of the Callahan Trail settlement.

Both the bride and bridegroom attended the Roseburg High School. The bridegroom served with the U. S. Army in the European theater of operations during World War II and is now employed at the Coon Creek sawmill. They will make their home in Roseburg.
