

Denverites Cheer Truman's Blasts At Wall Street

DENVER, Sept. 21.—(AP)—President Truman pledged the continued development of the nation's water resources yesterday before cheering Rocky Mountain voters whom he rallied to a fight against "Republican under-cover sabotage of the west."

He spoke to a crowd overflowing the State Capitol grounds.

Assistant State Highway Patrol Chief James D. Cole estimated that 15,000 persons, standing on the sun-baked grounds, heard the president's prediction that if the Republicans take over the government, "they will try to turn back the clock to the time when the west was an economy colony of Wall Street."

The speech followed a whistling, cheering, handclapping welcome to Denver from what police chief John O'Donnell estimated were 50,000 persons lining downtown streets for the presidential parade.

Mr. Truman told the westerners their hope for "new developments of your agriculture, your industry and your commerce" lies in insuring the election of a Democratic administration "pledged to give you that aid and support."

In the second major address of his current campaign swing he said the Republicans in congress "consistently tried to cut the grounds from under our conservation program."

"There is a hard fight ahead," Mr. Truman asserted.

Mr. Truman declared that "we of the Democratic party are eager for that fight."

"We are firmly determined to leave after us a land that is better than we found it."

"Party's Record Cited"

While he laid special emphasis on hydro-electric power and other water development projects of the west, the president also again attacked the Republicans on housing and price control issues.

Of the west he said, Democratic administrations in 16 years "have built a firm foundation for a new and greater west."

"We restored grazing lands... forests... established a sound conservation policy... built the federal system of hydro-electric and irrigation projects... and have led 'the fight for decent housing, effective reduction of the cost of living, and a rise in living standards.'... That is the Democratic record," he said.

On the other hand, the president declared, during Republican administrations from 1921 to 1933 "big business groups prevented adequate conservation measures from being put into effect. They wanted quick profits, the easy way."

The result, he said, was that western forests, range lands and farm land were stripped and left barren—"while the west continued to bow to Wall Street, furnishing raw materials at low prices and buying back finished goods at high prices."

Then, he said, came the Roosevelt administration under which "conservation was made a living reality."

Great Results Listed

"You of the west see the results of our victory every day. You see those results in bigger and better crops; in new industries; in the growing national parks and forests and the tourists who visit them. In the rising standards of living of the peoples of the west; and in the stronger economy of the whole nation."

There still is a long way to go in western conservation to catch up with timber use, fight erosion and disastrous floods," he said.

"In the face of all this," he said, "the Republicans in the congress consistently tried to cut the ground from under our conservation program." He declared the Democrats in the Senate saved its life, but it was seriously damaged by the Republicans.

Portland Hard Hit By Shortage of Gasoline

PORTLAND, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The gasoline shortage struck Portland hard yesterday.

Several service stations, their quota of gas gone, did not open. Others sold gas for 40 minutes and closed. Many more were open only a few hours.

Queues of cars waited along the street before some service stations. The 2-cents-a-gallon price increase, inaugurated by a few independent operators last week, spread to several more independent stations today.

Post-Death Report Of Bernadotte On Holy Land Bared

PARIS, Sept. 21.—(AP)—A posthumous report by the murdered Count Folke Bernadotte declares the United Nations should step in to end the Palestine war if the Arabs and Jews fail to make peace.

The mediator wrote that "Israel exists in Palestine," and the future of Arab Palestine should be left to the Arab states," in full consultation with the Arab inhabitants of the Holy Land.

His 35,000-word report was distributed to the 58 U. N. member states as his body and that of French Lt. Col. Andre Pierre Serot were being flown home.

The Holy City of Jerusalem, where he and Serot were shot to death last Friday, should be placed under United Nations control, the report said.

The report, which will be one of the problems facing the General Assembly opening today, also recommended changes in the Palestine partition plan.

The Negev desert of Southern Palestine, he said, should become Arab territory. Most of it was given to the Jews under the partition plan.

All of Galilee should be "defined as Jewish territory," he added. The partition plan gave Western Galilee to Arab Palestine but it now is under control of the Israeli Army.

While Bernadotte left the disposition of Arab Palestine to the Arab states, he recommended "in view of the historical connection and common interests of Trans-Jordan and Palestine, there would be compelling reasons for merging" Arab Palestine and neighboring Trans-Jordan.

Bernadotte's report also recommended:

"The Jewish port of Haifa, including oil refineries and terminals, should be declared a free port.

The airport at Lydda should be declared a free airport.

The right of 360,000 Arab refugees to return to their homes in Jewish-controlled territory, or payment of compensation by Israel to those "choosing not to return."

The rest of Union County reported no storage problem. Almost all the wheat is in Wallowa county reported a space shortage, but County Agent Garnet Best said some grain is being shipped to Lewiston and the rest being stored in farm outbuildings. All the county's elevators are full.
