

KRNR DIAL LOG

Just can't remind you too often—that tonight is the night! Suspenseful, isn't it? Really mean it when we say you'll be soooooo sorry if you miss Walter Hampden in 'Cyrano de Bergerac' tonight at 7 on "Great Scenes from Great Plays."

A footnote to the above paragraph should include "This Photographic Age" at 8:30 and "Henry J. Taylor" at 9:45, too, for tonight's listening.

You'd better plan now to grab that comfortable chair in the corner of the living-room, or, if you're the horizontal type—make it "dibs" on the davenport or floor. No matter if you're hanging by your toes from the chandeliers, you'll enjoy tomorrow's football game between Washington and Oregon State over KRNR at 1:45 p.m. Yes sir—approximately 2 1/2 hours of thrilling football! Football every Saturday just by dialing 1490.

What say we all make like quiz kids tomorrow, too?—Give a listen to "Take a Number" at 5 and "True or False" at 5:30. "Hem 'n Haw" at 6, news-fans. "Meet the Press" at 7.

Did you know that Mutual's a "must"? 'Tis. Here's proof: Mutual network researchers have prepared a new radio map of the United States which provides some interesting statistics about Mutual Don Lee Coast-to-Coast average. The network's daytime listenability is now up to 29,995,000 radio homes. And, in 320 cities in the country, the local MBS affiliate is the only network station in town. There is an MBS station in every one of the 48 states. Thought you ought to know.

Stay tuned KRNR—right? Tomorrow's Dial Log will give you a peek into Sunday's schedule.
