MRS. NORDLING IS HOSTESS TO ROSEBURG CIRCLE AT MEETING

Mrs. J. E. Nordling entertained members and friends of the Roseburg Circle at her home Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. Willis Erickson, pastor of the new Lutheran Church, which is being organized and of which the Circle is the nucleus, gave a short devotional and meditation. He thanked the members for their cooperation and the support he has received from the group. Plans were made for a rummage sale. The chairmen have asked all members and friends, who can do so, to bring their donations to 445 South Pine st. Anyone desiring to have donations picked up is asked to telephone 992-L. A pickup will be made Wednesday, Oct. 20. Date and location for the sale will be announced later.

At the close of the meeting, a social hour was enjoyed and the hostess served delicious refreshments. The November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. A. E. Dalros on the Garden Valley road.

BLUEBIRDS ELECT NEW OFFICERS AT RECENT MEETING

Sandra Howlett was elected president of the fourth grade Bluebirds at Rose school last week. Other officers include Roberta Hansen, treasurer; Joanne Kennerly, secretary; Judy Moore, sergeant-at-arms, and Bonnie Roark, song leader.

The new officers were installed and given the tools of their office and presented with a corsage by Mrs. Tom Pargeter and Mrs. Bill Hansen. Discussion was held on taking part in a national Bluebird project, "Santa Overseas."

Members of the group are Roberta Hansen, Bonnie Roark, Judy Moore, Carlene Felker, Suzanne Durnham, Vickie Lehman, LaDonna Parker, Mary Elise Unrath, Joanne Kennerly, Marjorie Holtgren, Barbara Phillips, Betty Ann Camidge, Marilyn Freeman, Nancy Smith, Sharon Titus, and Sandra Howlett.

Mrs. Pargeter, who was guardian of the group last year, assisted Mrs. Hansen, who will be the new guardian and Mrs. Elizabeth Durnham with the organization meeting.

R. A. AND E. CLUB ENTERTAINED AT BRADLEY HOME

Mrs. C. J. Bradley graciously entertained the Roseburg Art and Embroidery Club at her home on Military avenue Wednesday afternoon. An attractive arrangement of fruit and vegetables graced the table. The centerpiece was flanked by tall orange-colored candles.

Those present were: Mrs. Lonnie Houser and Mrs. A. W. Austin of Glencoe, Minn., guests, and Mrs. A. D. Hawn, Mrs. J. W. Bowman, Mrs. T. Hoffmeister, Mrs. J. G. Stephenson, Mrs. F. L. Betts, Mrs. Frank Bergh, Mrs. Henry Worthington, Mrs. A. Rhoads, Mrs. Charles Poirot, Mrs. G. L. Sinclair, Mrs. Frank Kent, Mrs. George Cluck, Mrs. Glenn Cox and the hostess, Mrs. Bradley. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess at the close of the social hour.

The next meeting will be October 20 at the S. J. Shoemaker home at 417 East Lane street with Mrs. A. Rhoads, hostess.

BOOSTER NIGHT PROGRAM IS ENJOYABLE AFFAIR

The Melrose Grange booster night program was well attended by members and guests last Tuesday night and the following program was presented: Address of welcome, C. E. Reece; group singing led by Mrs. Ray Doerner; vocal and guitar solo by Leon Nelson; talk by M. W. Slankard, city manager of Roseburg, and a musical pantomime by Miss Raeda Reece and Miss Pauline Miller, Roseburg high school students. A social hour of visiting was enjoyed and refreshments were served by the home economics members.

The grange has recently remodeled the kitchen and now have running water in the building. The work is being done by Scott Stidham.

PARTY IS ENJOYED TUESDAY EVENING

A party was held Tuesday evening at the Sutherland housing project honoring Mrs. Betty Williams, pastor of the Assembly of God Church, at which time a farewell party was also given for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reiley, who are leaving soon for Bandon, where they formerly made their home.

The ladies of the church and their husbands presented a 53-piece set of dishes to Mrs. Williams in addition to a beautiful Roseville flower vase. An attractive dish was presented to the Reiley family. Games were played and refreshments were served.
