PRIVATE GAIN
PRAGUE—(AP)—A government tobacco monopoly scheme to push the sale of Moravia cigarettes, a medium price brand, resulted in at least a temporary setback. It was announced that a number of packages would be distributed containing a gold strip. Any such package would entitle the buyer to a lightweight Czech motorbike. In the first week one man came up with a prize but the newspapers were filled with letters from irate Czechoslovaks complaining that the cigarette dealers were carefully opening every package of the brand to search themselves for the gold strips.

ROBBERS TAKE BUS
INSTANBUL—(AP)—In the fashion of movie thrillers, a band of masked bandits stopped a bus and robbed its 35 passengers. The holdup occurred in a bleak area near the coal mining center of Zonguldak on the Black Sea.

An undisclosed number of men each carrying two pistols stopped the bus as it rumbled along a forsaken highway and methodically robbed each passenger. Loot was estimated at about $2,150.

REDS LOSE A MOVE
BERN—(AP)—The upper house of the Swiss Parliament rejected by 68 votes to 30 a Communist-sponsored resolution to nationalize the Swiss cement industry. Switzerland nationalized its railroads, telephones, telegraphs and electric power several years ago.

HOPE TO CATCH A PEST
HONOLULU—(AP)—Government insect experts trying to control the destructive Malayan fruit fly hope to catch the pest napping.

Entomologists now are searching in South Africa and Malaya for enemies of the fruit fly. They want to find insects that will attack the fly during the pupa, or "sleeping," stage of its development.

During the demobilization in the Pacific in 1946, when traffic was moving freely in and out of Hawaiian ports, the Malayan fly found it way to the islands. Now it is doing thousands of dollars worth of damage to Hawaii's fruit crops.
