Marry at Candlelight Ceremony

Mr. and Mrs. Harold J. Horn

Miss Lorraine Louise Stritzke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Stritzke of Winchester, became the bride of Harold J. Horn, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Horn of Alex, Okla., at an impressive double ring ceremony Saturday evening, Sept. 11, at the First Christian Church in Roseburg. Rev. Kenneth W. Knox performed the nuptials at eight o'clock in the presence of 200 relatives and friends.

Yellow and white gladioli in two huge floor baskets, flanked by candelabra holding white cathedral candles, decorated the altar. The aisles were marked with white satin ribbons and bows. Decorations were in charge of Mrs. Ruth A. Plumer and Mrs. James Marr.

As the guests assembled, Mrs. Homer W. Grow played softly on the organ and accompanied Miss Sue Hahn, who sang "Always" and "Because." Miss Hahn wore a blue formal gown with black velvet bodice and a corsage of pink carnations.

The altar candles were lighted by Miss Martha Stritzke, younger sister of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Stritzke, sister-in-law of the bride. They wore gowns of aqua and pink with wristlets of pink carnations.

Mrs. Grow played the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin for the bridal party to take its place at the altar and at the close of the ceremony, she played "Mendelssohn's Wedding recessional."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white satin brocade fashioned on train and with wrist-length sleeves. Her finger-tip veil was held in place with a Coronet of seedpearls. She carried a white Bible topped with a large orchid tied with white satin ribbons.

Miss Mary Ann Stritzke was maid of honor for her sister and wore a gown of pale blue. She carried a bouquet of pink gladioli tied with light blue ribbons.

Donald H. White, nephew of the bridegroom, was best man and ushers were Charles E. Hart and Craig Dishman.

The bride's mother wore a navy blue suit with blue accessories and a corsage of red carnations. Mrs. J. C. White, sister of the bridegroom, wore a blue suit with a pink carnation corsage.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Two beautifully appointed tables were decorated with mirror centerpieces circled with pink gladioli blossoms. One table held the three-tiered wedding cake, which was topped by a miniature bridal couple, while the second table was used for the serving of punch. The cake was cut by the bride couple and served by Mrs. Ray Puckett, niece of the bridegroom. Mrs. Allen Cordon, niece of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl, assisted by Mrs. Donald H. White, Mrs. James Marr, Miss Dorothy McCay, Mrs. Austin and Mrs. J. C. White, sister of the bridegroom. Miss Emma Leah Winniford and Miss Lois Stritzke, sister of the bride, had charge of the gifts. Miss Marjorie Fowler had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a green and white print dress with white accessories and her corsage was an orchid. Following a trip to points north, the couple are now making their home on Route 1, Roseburg.

The bride was graduated from Roseburg High School and attended Eugene Business College. She is a member of the staff of the Roseburg Branch of the U. S. National Bank, where she has resumed her work. The bridegroom was graduated from High School in Alex, Okla., and attended college in Oklahoma. He served with the U. S. Army for five and a half years in the European Theater of Operations. He is employed as a driver by the Texas Oil Company in Roseburg.

Typist wanted for invoicing department. Good typing ability desired.
