GOOD YEAR
Sure-Grip
TRACTOR TIRES

Farm experts made check after check of open center and closer center tread tires on the same tractors, on clay, loose soil, and cover crops. Open center tires pulled heavier drawbar loads with no increase in slip—pulled the same drawbar loads with less slip. Plow and plant in less time, with less fuel, this year with Goodyear O-P-E-N C-E-N-T-E-R Sure-Grip Tractor tires.

If YOU can't do it—"Let George Do It" tonight at 7... not at 5, not at 6 or 6:30—but at 7. That's the only time he'll do it. George'll do most anything for a small fee—for instance—what would you do if you received a list of four murder victims? You'd either "drop dead" or run and hide somewhere—but not George. That's why we say "Let George Do It" tonight at 7 on KRNR and see just what he does under the above circumstances.

Tonight at 8—"The Flashing & Hunting Club of the Air" should hold your attention for a good half-hour's listening... Discussions on the program may run anywhere from moose to schmoos—depending upon whether you like moose-burger or schmoosburger, we suppose.

At 5 tomorrow, you may tune in KRNR in order to hear "Incredible, but True" at that time. But we got news for ya—"Incredible, but True"—that program featuring unexplained mysteries, is now rescheduled 8:30 to 8:45 p.m. Tuesdays and Thursdays. "Colorado Mountaineers" have moved too. Hear the whole gang at 6:30 p.m. Thursdays.

The second in a series of programs called "Box 13" starring Alan Ladd comes to you tomorrow night at 8. This time, Alan Ladd finds a letter in Box Thirteen—a letter from a very deadly, ruthless man-hunter who puts Ladd on the trail of a conspiracy to perpetrate a huge insurance swindle. Before he's through, Alan Ladd is threatened, pursued, beaten-up, and finally romanced by an exquisite girl. It's as hair-raising and engrossing as an adventure as you'd want to hear—KRNR's "Box Thirteen" story. Don't miss Alan Ladd in "Box Thirteen" at 8 tomorrow night on KRNR.

Oops! Another program shift—"Music You Remember," featuring Esther Geddes playing her Hammond organ direct from the music room of her home—is heard an hour later now Tuesdays and Thursdays—7:30 p.m.

That's all for today, folks!
