The Israeli government received the order today. It appeared the Jewish Army already had accomplished its major objectives. Egypt also received official notification of the cease fire order. Premier Mahmoud Fasha told newsmen in Cairo "Jewish aggression" continued this morning. He said the U.N. order did not fix any deadline and he understood this would be set by the acting mediator, Dr. Ralph Bunche.

For their services, Oregon dentists were paid $546,291, while a valuation of $89,163 was placed on work by the VA staff. More than 600 dentists are on the agency's referral list. Veterans filed 9447 claims for dental work during the year. Added to a backlog of 5625 in July, 1947, these comprised a workload of 15,072 claims. Twenty-seven per cent of these, or 3999, were disallowed, canceled or withdrawn, while 7984 were approved. In the year, 11,983 dental cases were disposed of, which left a backlog of 3089 last July 1. This backlog, Mr. Fields pointed out, has been cut by one-third in the past three months. Most dental work on new eligible cases can now be authorized in six weeks' time, he said.
