Honored Queen of Riddle

Miss Priscilla Pruner Picture by Clark's Studio

A special meeting of Riddle Bethel, No. 39, was held Sept. 30, for inspection and receiving the charter. Jo Ann Custis, Marlene Smith and Isa McDonald were initiated.

Highlight of the evening was the presentation of the charter by Mrs. Felicia Elbert, grand guardian of Oregon, to Margaret Walsh, guardian of Riddle Bethel. Mrs. Cora Young, supreme chaplain, presented a lovely tablet to the Bethel as a gift from Ralph Thomas, past associate grand guardian of Oregon.

Preceding the meetings, a chicken dinner was served in the dining room of the temple with Mrs. Elbert as guest of honor.

At the close of the meeting, refreshments were served to 80 guests.

Queen Priscilla has an interesting agenda planned for the remainder of her term.

HOBO HALLOWE'EN PARTY HELD BY CLUB

The Associated Business Women's club of Sutherlin was delightfully entertained at a Hobo party Monday evening at the Methodist church by Miss Jacqueline Frederick, Mrs. Dorothy Rose, Mrs. Lois Riemenschneider, Mrs. Betty Correll and Mrs. Lucille Chase.

The large room was decorated in the Halloween colors with jack-o'-lanterns placed about the room and over the electric lights.

Mr. Thatcher, a representative of the City Council, gave a short talk on what they were planning for the city park and asked cooperation from the club. It was decided to stand back of the committee.

Mrs. Robert Hansen was presented with a lovely pink and blue gift by Mrs. Flora Cooper, from the members of the club.

The Grand March was had and each one in costume paraded before the group and the following were chosen as having the best costumes: Mrs. Lochia Thompson, Mrs. Loa Mae Wilson, Mrs. Buck, Miss Betty Musgrove and Mrs. Gula Crowell, they were then asked to appear again and Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Buck were chosen by popular applause. Mrs. Thompson was chosen as the best and won first prize, with the second prize going to Mrs. Buck.

The members who attended not in costume were asked to do a stunt, named by one of the committee in charge. Game prizes went to Mrs. Thompson and Mrs. Holgate and Miss Torrey. Group singing was enjoyed while the hostess prepared the lunch.

Refreshments were served to: Mrs. Ivena Halverson, Mrs. Juanita Atterbury, Mrs. Cora Allen, Mrs. Gladys Minor, Mrs. Martha Coenenberg, Mrs. Leona Slack, Mrs. Evelyn Young, Mrs. Helme Burns, Mrs. Genevieve Cox, Mrs. Erma Buck, Mrs. Conne Smith, Mrs. Isabel Card, Mrs. Gula Crowell, Miss Betty Musgrove, Mrs. Lochia Thompson, Mrs. Betty Stamp, Mrs. Loa Mae Wilson, Mrs. Juanita Holgate, Mrs. Laura Welsh, Mrs. Lou Mae Washburn, Mrs. Helen Brown, Miss Francis Torrey, Mrs. Maude Culver, Mrs. Madeline Hansen, Mrs. Flora Cooper, Mrs. Lucille Chrise and Miss Jean Mettauer.

Mrs. Helen Brown won the door prize.

WINCHESTER COMMUNITY CLUB HAS MEETING

A very interesting meeting was held by the ladies of the Winchester Community Club Thursday at the home of Mrs. Ance Ketcherside. The president, Mrs. Eugene Ridenour, was in charge.

Room mothers to assist the teachers were selected and included: first grade, Marcelle Johnson; second grade, Kay Jacobs; third grade, Thelma Reber; 4th grade, Inez Van Horn; fifth grade, Delores Smith; sixth grade, Jessie Wench; seventh grade, Louise Ketcherside; and eighth grade, Eldora Reber.

Plans were made for Christmas treats for the school children.

Plans were discussed for a Halloween dance to be held Oct. 30. Proceeds will go to purchase Christmas treats for the school. The dance is to be held in the neighborhood and the place will be announced later. Those attending are asked to wear costume. Jessie Wench, Lorain Lewis, Kay Jacobs and Thelma Speidel will be in charge.

The membership drive is to be in charge of Inez Van Horn, Marie Ridenour, Adrid Van Horn, Thelma Reber and Jessie Wench. The drive will close the first meeting in January. The next meeting is to be at the home of Mrs. David Lewis with Mrs. Helen Davidson, co-hostess.

Lorain Lewis brought material to the meeting from the school to make up bean bags for the school children. Refreshments were served at the tea hour by the hostesses, Mrs. Ketcherside and Mrs. Ridenour.

FRIENDLY CIRCLE CLUB HONORS MRS. W. E. MILLS

The Friendly Circle Club was entertained at the lovely new home of Mrs. Bernadine Edwards at Coos Junction Wednesday, at which time a charming pink and blue shower party was given Mrs. W. E. Mills.
