

Governorships Of 29 States Won By Democrats

WASHINGTON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Democrats will have the governorships of 29 states next year as a result of election victories that strengthened their control of the nation's grass-roots political machinery.

The Republicans went into the election Tuesday holding half the 49 governorships but the Democrats captured 20 of the 35 state contests.

The Democrats made a net gain of six governorships—winning eight from the Republicans and losing in two states, Utah and Washington.

That would make the new lineup 30 Democrats and 18 Republicans except for one election oddity.

Democratic Gov. Lester C. Hunt of Wyoming was elected to the Senate. When he leaves office, he will be succeeded by A. G. Crane, Republican secretary of state in Wyoming.

So the line-up then will be 29 Democratic governors and 19 Republican.

One Democrat who failed to win re-election was President Truman's good friend Mon C. Wallgren of Washington. Former Governor Arthur B. Langlie, Republican, ousted Wallgren in a close race.

Democrats were elected in Arizona, Arkansas, Colorado, Connecticut, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Montana, North Carolina, Ohio, Rhode Island, Tennessee, Texas, West Virginia, Michigan, Massachusetts and New Mexico (20).

In 10 states—including Wyoming—with Democratic governors there was no election this year.

Republicans won elections in Iowa, Kansas, Maine, New Hampshire, Oregon, South Dakota, Utah, Vermont, Wisconsin, North Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota and Washington (13). The Republicans had five carry-overs in office.

Democrats routed Republicans from office in Ohio, Connecticut, Delaware, Illinois, Montana, Michigan, Indiana and Massachusetts.

Foreign Affairs

LONDON, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Argentina Foreign Minister Bramuglia said today he probably will make a new attempt soon "from a different angle" to conciliate the East-West dispute over Berlin.

Bramuglia, November president of the United Nations Security Council, spoke with newsmen on his arrival from Paris for an official visit.

He would not explain exactly what he meant by "new angle." He did say, however, that it would be a "new approach," distinctly different from his "neutral" draft proposal which Russia vetoed in the Security Council last month.

PARIS, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Gen. Charles De Gaulle has called for the election of his followers to Upper House of Parliament Sunday. He said this would save France from anarchy.

De Gaulle said last night that if his French people's Party gets control of the Upper House, it will use its influence to bring about new general elections for went on the ballot with little publicity. It passed, 2748 to 2629.

Also approved was a $292,000 levy to complete construction of a $380,000 hospital. The vote was 4296 to 1454. The money will be raised by a 15-mill levy in the coming fiscal year and a 3-mill levy in the succeeding one.

LA GRANDE, Nov. 5.—(AP)—Union county voters for the second time this year turned down a three-mill levy for five years to construct market roads. The same measure was defeated last May.

PORTLAND, Nov. 5.—(AP)—With the election count almost complete today, daylight saving time appeared assured for Portland next summer.

There was belief the entire coast would adopt daylight time again next year. California is on it now, and Seattle also voted for "fast time" next summer.

The vote here was 66,133 to 62,521—a favorable margin of 3612.

SALEM, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The Multnomah County old age pension committee reported to the State Department today it spent $1,342 during the general election campaign.

The money was spent in favor of the $50 old age pension initiative, which was passed by the voters.

Weyerhaeusers Purchase Ewauna Box Company KLAMATH FALLS, Ore., Nov. 5.—(AP)—The Weyerhaeuser Timber Company was set today for long-time operations in this area, following purchase of extensive timber holdings.

Weyerhaeuser bought the large Ewauna Box Company lumber plant here. With it went Ewauna's timberland and contracts for Indian service and national forest timber.

Weyerhaeuser officials said the timber would be diverted to the job again.

TILLAMOOK, Nov. 5.—(AP)—A one-rejected road oiling tax was approved in the Tillamook county election.

Defeated in an active campaign earlier, the measure—a four-mill levy to raise $290,000—their own plant near here. The Ewauna plant will be removed and the valuable Ewauna site offered to some other industry.

The price Weyerhaeuser paid was not disclosed. It was believed in the million-dollar class.

Bayocean Freed Of Damaging Storm

TILLAMOOK, Ore., Nov. 5.—(AP)—Communications with the isolated community of Bayocean were restored today as the third storm of the week subsided along the Oregon coast.

The community, lying on the slender Bayocean peninsula between Tillamook Bay and the Pacific, became an island two days ago when the ocean tore a 200-foot gap through the land spit.

A bulldozer pushed up a path from Cape Meares to the community and automobile traffic to Bayocean was expected to resume late today.

The force of the latest storm to strike the coast passed over last night with little new damage reported.

All along the coast, however, were signs of a fierce battering—the worst this section has had in nine years. It was a combination of unusually high tides plus giant waves kicked up by storms that did the damage.

Uncounted small boats were battered and docks wrecked. Logs were tossed onto beach cottages. At high tide water swept into the streets of the city of Taft. Waves even lashed over the coast highway, and debris littered the route at a number of points.

signed accords of friendship, commerce and navigation at San Remo today.

SEOUL, Nov. 5.—(AP)—The U. S. Army today announced a weekend curfew for American personnel in Seoul as a precaution against possible Korean disorders on the Nov. 7 anniversary of the Russian revolution.

Korean police were also taking precautions, rounding up several hundred Communists and other alleged extremists in the past two days.

Twice this week police paraded 6,000 strong through Seoul's streets. Korean Army liaison planes dropped leaflets urging the people to have confidence in the Army and police and blaming last month's rebellion in the South on the Communists.

There still were sporadic outbreaks of violence. Two policemen were killed yesterday by a mob in the village of Samchok, on the East coast almost due East of Seoul.
