IWA CAMP FIRE GROUP

The Iwa Camp Fire Group of St. Joseph's school enjoyed a nature hike to the Kiwanis Park. A delicious lunch was prepared and served by the girls. After a session of games, the girls hiked back to the Umpqua Park where they spent the remainder of the afternoon playing on the swings and slides. Mrs. S. D. McDonald and Mrs. James Smith accompanied the girls.

On the 13th of October the group held their first Council Fire since the beginning of school at the St. Joseph's school. After a short business meeting, a candle lighting ceremony was performed. At this time each girl told the group her Indian name, its meaning, and the reason for choosing her name. The Camp Fire law and handsign were given, and the girls sang "Wohelo For Aye." Following the singing, the new officers were installed and presented with red carnation corsages by their leader, Mrs. James Smith. The officers being installed were: President, Shirley Tyrer; Vice-President, Lucille Miller; Secretary, Betty Fabish; Treasurer, Carla Griffith; Sgt. at Arms, Carol Barrett; and Song Leader, Georgia Lee.

After the ceremony Mrs. Smith served refreshments to the officers and Dorothy Miller, Mary Ann Spancake, Janice Opsahl, Nancy Lehnens, and Estelle Buanet.

On October 20th the Iwa Camp Fire group met at St. Joseph's school. The meeting was opened with the salute to the flag and the Law of the Camp Fire Girls. At this meeting plans were completed for the Halloween party to be held on October 27.

The girls voted to have a pen-pal, and chose Germany as the country that they would like to hear from. It was also decided to prepare a basket each month to be given to someone at the County Home, choosing a name from a list each month.

Special honor pins for securing new members were awarded to members bringing in a new member.

The meeting was closed with the Camp Fire Handsign followed by songs and games.

Those present were: Lucille Miller, Carol Garrett, Dorothy Miller, Mary Ann Spancake, Janice Opsahl, Carla Griffith, Shirley Tyrer, Georgia Lee, Betty Ann Fabish, Nancy Lehnens, and Frances, Phyllis and Patricia Payne.

CANTEWASTEWA

The Cantewastewa group held a fall ceremonial at the home of their guardian, Mrs. Elton Jackson, at Winchester on Wednesday evening, October 13, at 7 o'clock.

After the Wohelo call, the girls entered the room singing the processional. The new members were welcomed into the group and each new girl lighted a candle in a short ceremony symbolizing the fact that each member brings a new flame to the camp fire. After singing "The Camp Fire Law," the following girls took part in the candle lighting ceremony which was held in front of the fireplace with the girls seated in a circle around the fire. The candle of work was lit by JoAnn Deister, the one of health by Doris Ann Long, and the candle of love by Jean Stevens. The Call of the Fire was sung in unison; then the roll call was called.

Honor beads were awarded by Mrs. Jackson for honors earned at Camp Tye and also on an overnight camp-out held the first of September. A short talk was given by the guardian on the 1949 National Birthday Project—Make Mine Democracy. The candle extinguishing ceremony was given by Louise Gillam, Martha Stritzke, and Barbara Wonch. The ceremonial was closed by the singing of "Wohelo for Aye."

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Jackson at the close of the ceremonial to the following: Mrs. Long, Mrs. Roughcore, Mrs. McCarthy, Mrs. Stritzke, Gwenell Foster, and Carolyn Jackson, guests, and the following members: Barbara and Carol Wonch, Martha Stritzke, Carol Greening, JoAnn Deister, Doris Ann Long, Martha Johnson, Louise Gillam, Mary Roughcore, Rosana McCarthy, Betty Jean Ferber, and Jean Stevens.

OKIHI

The Okihi Camp Fire group of Rose School met at the school on Tuesday afternoon, October 14. The girls chose their Indian names and the group name. Plans were made for a series of candy sales to be held at the school. Plans were made for memory books. The girls learned songs from the Camp Tye song book. Carolyn Pargeter was elected Vice President.

TAWASII AND SHUTANKA

The Tawassii and Shutanka Camp Fire Girls from the Edenbower and Riverside schools met jointly at the Riverside school for a most impressive Council Fire on October 8.

The ceremonial was conducted by Mrs. Betty Gibson. The Wohelo call was given and the girls entered the room singing The Walking Song. A symbolic fire made of beautiful flame colored flowers was the center of the three candles, Work, Health and Love. These candles were lit by Adele Gibson, and Gayle Groshong, presidents of their groups, and Mrs. Robert Gladwill, guardian.

Following the singing of Wohelo for Aye, the girls drew their Indian names out of the "fire." The groups names were also taken from the "fire." The first rank, that of Trail Seeker, was explained and Barbara Sory, a Trail Seeker and a transfer from the Iwa group, recited the Trail Seeker's desire. At this point of the ceremonial Mrs. Gladwill welcomed Mrs. Groshong into the circle as the Guardian of the Riverside group, and Mrs. George Osterman as assistant of the Edenbower group.

In closing the groups formed the friendship circle with crossed and joined hands and sang the Call of the Fire followed by Taps as the candles were extinguished by Mrs. Gibson.

ONCHIOTA

A new Camp Fire Group was organized in the Dixonville District Oct. 9 by Mrs. James Smith. Nine girls were present at the first meeting. Mrs. Smith explained in detail to the girls the meaning of Camp Fire, its laws and advantages, also the present membership drive. The girls chose for their group name, Onchiota, meaning rainbow. Each girl chose her own Indian name.

Election of officers was postponed until the following meeting due to the lack of time. Those present were: Silvia Leverich, Beverly Goodwin, Dona Townsend, Marlyse Fumerton, Shirley Goodwin, Carmen Cox, Georgia Townsend, Patsy Shelley, and Marta Patterson.

The second meeting of the Dixonville Onchiota Camp Fire group was held in the Dixonville Dance Hall. An election of officers were made. Committees were chosen and the discussion of a Halloween party to be given Oct. 29 was held. Mrs. Smith read the requirements of earning honors. It was decided that the members would like to hold a candy sale sometime during the month of December.

Officers elected were: President, Shirley Goodwin; Vice President, Silvia Leverich; Secretary, Carmen Cox; Treasurer, Lorene Kester; Sgt. at Arms, Dona Townsend; Song Leader, Beverly Goodwin. Other members present included Marlyse Fumerton, Georgia Townsend, Patsy Shelley, and Marta Patterson. New members were Lorene Kester and Nesta Patterson.

The meeting adjourned, after which time games were played.

SHU TAN KA

The Shu Tan Ka Camp Fire girls met in the Riverside School on Friday, Oct. 29th.

A Halloween party followed a short meeting. Present were Sandra Zenor, Ann Short, Mary Freeman, Gayle Groshong, Barbara Sory, Joan Swopes, Elsie Bridge,
