

U. O. Webfoots Blast Bruins In 26-7 Win

Rose Bowl Hopes High With Only Oregon State Remaining on Schedule

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 13.—(AP)—The University of Oregon's football team headed home today, having shown in powerful manner that its Rose Bowl dreams are anything but bubbles in the air.

Keeping abreast of unbeaten California in the drive to represent the Pacific Coast Conference at Pasadena's New Year's Day classic, the big, smooth running Oregon eleven kept its conference record intact by crushing a fighting but outmatched UCLA Bruin last night, 26 to 7 before 42,000 fans.

The win was the Webfoot's sixth in conference play. It broke a 15-year jinx for the Webfoots playing the Bruins in Memorial Coliseum, and left them with one more obstacle in their drive for the first appearance of an Oregon team in the Rose Bowl since the Webfoots dropped a 7-6 decision to Harvard in 1920.

The team is keeping one eye ahead on their next foe, a major foe any year—Oregon State. The other eye is fastened on the California Bears and their game today with Washington State and next week against traditionally bitter Stanford.

California defeated UCLA last week, 28-13, and lost some of its luster in the doing. UCLA Coach Bert La Ruecherie declined to compare the Bears and Oregon. But he had nothing but high praise for the Webfoot's field general and pass artist, Norman Van Brocklin.

The same is true of Oregon's backs—Bob Sanders, Woodley Lewis, George Bell—and a line anchored by bruising Brad Ecklund, 200-pound center.

Jim Aiken's strong men spent the evening opening tremendous holes for the ball carriers. They throttled the UCLA attack until, with reserves dotting the field, the UCLA's traveled 93 yards in the final quarter for their lone touchdown.

Oregon cashed in on one break—a fumble on the Bruin 23. They failed to cash in on another fumble, but that was the only mistake they made. Van Brocklin, using his arm sparingly in favor of directing a murderous ground attack, set up the second touchdown with his aerial wizardry.

The next two Webfoot scores came on marches of 69 and 51 yards, with Sanders, Lewis and Company tearing off huge gains afoot.

Oregon rolled up 380 yards total offense, UCLA 23. Van Brocklin threw only 12 passes, completed six for 89 yards, and his right end, Dick Wilkins, sharing the spotlight with his wingmate, Dan Garza, caught his 25th pass of the season to break a conference record of 24 set last year by Oregon State's Don Mast.

Notre Dame, Army Ruled Favorites In Today's Games

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Notre Dame and Army ruled solid 14-point favorites today in the headline games of a crowded college football program.

The Irish met ambitious Northwestern at South Bend with a chance to tie the 26-game unbeaten string of Knute Rockne's 1929-30 juggernaut.

The West Point Cadets, heading toward a new all-time collegiate record for ball-carrying power, engaged big, bruising Pennsylvania at Philadelphia.

In addition to Notre Dame and Army, another of the five remaining unbeaten, untied major teams—Clemson—faced its toughest obstacle of the year, Rugged Wake Forest, already chosen for Birmingham's Dixie Bowl, was Clemson's foe at Winston Salem and perhaps the day's largest menace to the thinning perfect ranks.

The other unsmudged elevens—Michigan and California—were blessed with a comparatively mild afternoon's work.

The Wolverines played Indiana, already beaten five times, at Ann Arbor. The Golden Bears, making the boldest bid for the Pacific Coast spot in the Rose Bowl, tangled with twice-whipped, once-tied Washington State at Berkeley.

North Carolina, its clean record soiled by the tie with William and Mary last week, took on Maryland at Washington, D. C., in a game that should send one of the Southern Conference teams into a bowl.

Levy on Out-of-Town Firms up to City Voters

ST. HELENS, Ore., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Voters will ballot next month on a charter amendment which will enable St. Helens to levy license fees on out-of-town firms doing business in the city.

Such fees were ruled illegal by Circuit Court Judge Howard K. Zimmerman, who held that the present city charter did not permit the levies. The charter is now being reworded.

The judge upheld the city on one important point. He ruled that charging license fees 50 per cent higher for out-of-town firms was not discriminatory, since local firms pay additional money through real property taxation.

Joe Maxim is Awarded Win Over Satterfield

CHICAGO, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Cleveland's Joe Maxim, a fancy light heavyweight strategist, was awarded a 10-round unanimous decision over hard-hitting Bob Satterfield of Chicago in Chicago Stadium last night. Maxim weighed 181 pounds to 172 1/2 for Satterfield. The slim crowd of 4,802 paid $21.142.

Gavilon Gets 10-Round Decision Over Pellone

NEW YORK, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Kid Gavilan, flashy Cuban contender, will leave for Havana in a day or two with the hope that upon his return in January it will be to meet Welterweight Champion Ray Robinson in a title bout.

Gavilan, who won a decisive, unanimous 10-round decision over tough Tony Pellone of New York in Madison Square Garden last night, is very anxious to meet the Cuban Kid for the 147-pound crown.

The Cuban Kid lost a non-title fight to Robinson in Yankee Stadium last September. Robinson weighed 150 for that scrap, and Gavilan's handlers—as well as the Kid himself—believe the Cuban can lift the title at the division weight.

Basketball Officials Clinic Is Announced

Persons interested in officiating at basketball games are asked to attend a basketball clinic to be held in Roseburg Senior High School Monday, Dec. 13, according to an announcement released by A. Oden Hawes, representing Oregon School Activities Association.

School administrators, coaches and officials are among those invited to attend. Basketball rules will be discussed, motion pictures shown, and a basketball examination will be administered to persons desiring to officiate at basketball games.

Papooses Ready For Ashland Tilt; Writer in Hiding

Seems like the spotlight was turned on the Papooses before they could take their places on stage, in Friday's News-Review. Now it's the local sportswriter that's about to be packed away in mothballs, along with the Indians' uniforms.

The Papooses gridiron engagements have been shifted around more times on the local sports page than Thanksgiving during F. D. Roosevelt's administration.

At any rate, the Papooses will play tonight—Saturday—at 8 o'clock on Finlay Field, where they will make their final appearance of the season in a return match against Ashland Junior High School.

The Papooses will be out to break a previously mentioned 0-0 tie. (It is hoped they don't include the N-R sportswriter's neck in the deal.)

During the past week, the Junior High Papooses have scrimmaged successfully, passed persistently, kicked consistently and in general, drilled diligently. For tonight's (Saturday) Nov. 13, 8 p. m., Finlay Field) game, they are—in a word—prepared.

(The N-R sportswriter is prepared, too. He bought a one-way ticket to Lower Slobbovia—just in case the game should happen to be called off. "I gung become fisherman—Red Herrink, a spe-shully," he is reported to have said, after being coaxed out of a crack in the concrete.)

Football fans—especially Papoose pluggers—are urged to attend this final 1948 gridiron tussle on the Senior High Field to see the 1951 varsity in action.

Coast Conference Football Activity

CORVALLIS, Ore., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Despite a forecast of showers, a high-scoring duel was expected between the Utah Redskins and the Oregon State Beavers.

Both teams are offense-minded. Oregon State in particular has shown a potent attack and an absence of defense. The Beavers scored seven touchdowns in their last two games, but allowed 11 and lost both tilts.

BERKELEY, Calif., Nov. 13.—(AP)—Four away and two to go on the Rose Bowl trail, the University of California Bears take on the Washington State Cougars before an expected crowd of 40,000 in Memorial Stadium today.

California was favored by four touchdowns.

The Bears will be near top strength. Only tackle Jim Turner and Reserve Halfback Bob Dal Porto may be sidelined with injuries.

Pallo Alto, Calif., Nov. 13

Stanford's painfully-acquired knowledge of rock 'em and sock 'em football, learned the hard way from Army last week, was passed on today to the Montana Grizzlies.

Whether the Montanans long jaunt from Missoula gets them anything but a hard-earned lesson in blocking and tackling is doubtful, the dope figuring them several touchdowns below Stanford.

Head-Butt Experts Battle Tonight In Mat Bill Headliner

One of the most hectic wrestling battles in more than two years is anticipated by Douglas County mat followers at the Roseburg Armory tonight—and a capacity crowd is expected for a one-hour headliner between the "Grey Mask" and Rufus Jones.

The Mask, the mystery man of the mat, and Jones, the hard-manly, peace and concord among the nations of the world. The times are difficult and events are grave with co-sequences. In a spirit of profound, humility, I ask guidance of divine providence."

MOSCOW, Idaho, Nov. 13.—(AP)—Coach Hal Moe's Portland University Pilots will be seeking their first win over the University of Idaho in four tries when they meet today on the Idaho football field. The Vandals nipped Portland last year 20 to 14 by covering 95 yards in the last minute of play.

A rainless afternoon has been predicted for the anticipated crowd of 6,000. The kickoff is scheduled for 1:30 p. m.

Czech Schools Demand Right Political Replies

PRAGUE.—(AP)—Czechoslovakia's educational system is due for an overhauling so that students who get as far as the university will have something more than book knowledge. Any student applying for university admission has to pass a sort of intelligence "acceptance committee" composed of one professor and two senior students.

The answers have to be right politically, of course. And the answers may, or may not, have been in books somewhere along the educational assembly line.

It's the answers that are making the educational authorities see red. One student who applied to enter journalism school was asked "Who is Dmitrov?" He didn't know. "Well, what about Vishinsky?" the answer: "Never heard the name." Then, the candidate answered: "You see, I read books only by Czech authors."

One girl student who wanted to become a school teacher and recited reams of Shakespeare to prove her literary ability was turned down because, among other things, she insisted beer was made from grapes.

One candidate for the medical college insisted that "The Marshall plan is an organization of the American Unitarian church which distributes Bibles and baby clothing in Germany... or in western Europe."

Pope Pius Congratulates Truman on His Election

VATICAN CITY, Nov. 12.—(AP)—Pope Pius II congratulated President Truman on his election victory and the president, replying, said he was humbly seeking divine guidance in the quest for peace, the Vatican announced yesterday.

The Pope's message expressed hope the president's work would be crowned by peace and prosperity. The Pontiff added that these wishes were accompanied by prayers for the president's family.

Replying, the president thanked the Pontiff and added: "Our fields of work, while distinct, have some objects in common: The happiness of hu-
