DIAL-LOG

Attesting to the fact that there are a lot of cynics in the world are the following questions, which have been asked of the career girls' panel on KJH-Mutual Don Lee's "Leave It to the Girls" (Fridays, 7:30 to 7:55 p. m.):

"Why is it that older men, when they are looking for a wife or sweetheart, always look out for a young girl instead of choosing a nice woman nearer their own age?"

"Could you tell me why, when a woman marries a man somewhat younger than herself she is held up to ridicule by all, but if an older man is lucky enough to snag a young girl, he is thought smart and envied by other men? Why is this?"

"As a wallpaper salesman, I find women are always changing their minds. Why do they invariably remind you that a woman reserves the right to change her mind? What more right do they have than men?"

"Can you tell me why a man won't let his wife wear make-up, and then, when he's out on the street, stares at the girls with six inches of it on their faces?"

While you're pondering these weighty matters... let us remind you that tonight at 8 you'll hear "Box Thirteen"... "Music You Remember" at 8:30... "Incredible, But True" at 8:45.

Tomorrow night at 7—join in the fun on "What's the Name of That Song?" "Official Detective" will be heard at 7:30, Hy Gardner at 7:55, and "Boston Blackie" at 8.

Here's an advance notice—"Music in the Modern Mood" returns this Thursday night in the 7:30 to 8 slot. Don't miss it—will include many of your current favorites.

Time out now for more program research... back with more tomorrow.

Riot Gun Stops Runaway Plane With Dead Pilot

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 15 — (AP) — National guardsmen, air force personnel and state police officers used a riot gun and dare-devil tactics to stop a runaway P-51 fighter plane yesterday that circled crazily on Stout Field runway. A dead pilot, victim of a ground crash between his plane and another Mustang, was the ship's only occupant. He was Capt. Phillip Bonner, 28-year-old Indianapolis veteran of the Second World War.

Col. Allison Maxwell of Lawrence, Ind., commander of the 122nd fighter group of Indiana National Guard, said Capt. Bonner was killed in a ground collision with a plane piloted by Lt. Thomas C. Coston, 23, Indianapolis.

Bonner's plane, with its power still on and its propeller running, began making tight circles on the runway. "National guardsmen and state police slowed the plane to some extent by clinging to the left wing," Col. Maxwell said, "and the trooper Ray Thompson fired pistol bullets through the tires. The plane continue to move, and he stopped it by shooting off the tires with a riot gun. The bare

110,000 Polio Patients Aided by March of Dimes

NEW YORK — (AP) — An estimated 110,000 infantile paralysis patients have been assisted financially through the March of Dimes during its eleven years.

The total, including about 20,000 during 1948, was reported by Dr. Hart E. Van Riper, medical director of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.
