RED DEAN
DIAL-LOG
HILLIER

Maybe you just want to stay home and listen to the radio tonight—Could be that many of you feel that way now that the weather is so perfectly lousy—REALLLLLY lousy? Settle back then for a real schmaltzy eve of listening. "Meet the Boss," with Guy Lombardo at 6:30; "Meet the Press," featuring the "Red Dean" of Canterbury as guest. (He is the Very Rev. Dr. Hewlett Johnson, Dean of Canterbury, who has been criticized for his leftist preachings and has been called the "Red Dean." Dr. Johnson is currently making a lecture tour of the U. S., after some passport difficulties, due to the fact that the sponsors of his tour were on Attorney General Clark's list of subversive organizations.) "Hawaii Calls," at 7:30, "Happy Valley Cowboys" at 8, and "Yours For a Song" at 8:30. Aint it SWELL?

Tomorrow at 2:30, the famed crusader against crime, "Mr. D. A." (Jay Jostin), will be guest detective of the week for the "Quick As a Flash" series broadcast. Win Elliott, as master of ceremonies, will guide six guest contestants through the intricacies of dramatic quiz questions. Music under direction of Ray Bloch. At 3:30 Sunday, the broken wrist of an apparent suicide convinces "Nick Carter, Master Detective" that he's dealing with an unusually clever murderer as he investigates "The Case of the Red Thumb."

Are you from Baltimore? YOU AREN'T? Will tell you anyway that Gabriel Heatter will cite the Baltimore News Post tomorrow night at 6 on "The Gabriel Heatter Drama" for its civic enterprises. At 7 p. m., Billy Rose, man-about-town and Broadway showman, will be the guest for KJH-Mutual Don Lee's "Twenty Questions" broadcast.

Wonder what the "Dickens" play is for Sunday night's "Favorite Story" series? THAT'S IT! Dickens... Charles Dickens' "Great Expectations"... the favorite story of Walter Hampden. You'll recall all the tenderness and intrigue of this great story as Lady Haversham, Magwitch, Pip and Estella come to life once more and unfold their dramatic tale. Space all shot to pieces... See you Monday!
