MISS BERTHA KOHLHAGEN IS GUEST SPEAKER AT ROSEBURG WOMAN'S CLUB

Miss Bertha Kohlhausen, state supervisor of Vocational Home Economics, and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kohlhausen Sr., of Roseburg, was guest speaker at the meeting of the Roseburg Woman's Club held Tuesday afternoon in the Methodist Church parlors. She was introduced by Mrs. R. H. Solt. She gave a most interesting talk on the goals of her group to prepare individuals for more effective living so they could be happier and better citizens. The Future Homemakers of America, which is an organization of this department, has had rapid growth in Oregon, according to Miss Kohlhausen. She was a representative for the Pacific Northwest last summer at Washington, D. C., and told of having tea with President and Mrs. Truman.

Mrs. George E. Houck, president, conducted the business meeting. Mrs. G. V. Wimberly reported there had been a generous response to the call for books for the Canyonville Library. Anyone still wishing to donate books may leave them with Mrs. Reizenstein at the Roseburg Public Library. A report on the district convention held at Lebanon, Nov. 5, was given by Mrs. E. L. Tauscher. Mrs. H. C. Church introduced Mrs. Benjamin O. Du Fresnois and Mrs. Carl W. Assom of the Junior Woman's Club who explained their December project and exhibited two sets of Raggedy Ann dolls to be given away.
