Sewing For Shrine Hospital Is Exhibited

Left to right: Mrs. Bruce C. Elliott, Mrs. Cliff Thornton and Mrs. A. J. Young.

Roseburg and other Douglas County residents have been loud in their praise the last week of Badoura Club, Daughters of the Nile members for their extensive Christmas sewing for the crippled children of the Shrine hospital in Portland.

A bride-doll, which has been named, Badoura, and a complete trousseau were displayed in the window of the J. C. Penney Company store, while the remainder of the Christmas sewing was exhibited in the window of Roy Belows store.

The Christmas sewing has been sent to Nydia Temple, Daughters of the Nile in Portland for the annual Christmas party for crippled children at the Shrine hospital, which will be an event of December 1. The board of governors will be guests of the temple at this party.

Badoura Club members have accomplished an unusually large amount of sewing for the hospital this year. Mrs. Cliff Thornton is president of the club; Mrs. Bruce C. Elliott is treasurer, and Mrs. A. J. Young is sewing chairman.

The club members will entertain their husbands at the annual Christmas party and turkey dinner Dec. 18 at the Riversdale Grange hall. A Christmas tree and entertainment will be enjoyed.

Jeanne Mowery Third Candidate In RHS Carnival

Blonde haired, blue eyed Jeanne Mowery is the third of six contestants aiming for the Senior Carnival queen crown, which will be awarded to the candidate accumulating the most points for ticket sales to the affair. The carnival will be an event of Thursday, Dec. 2, at the Roseburg Armory.

Pretty five foot, three inch, 110 pound Jeanne is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaye J. Mowery, 127 N. Kane. Her ambition is to sing with a name band after completing her education. She plans to work a year after graduating from high school, then may attend the University of Oregon.

Miss Mowery, born May 6, 1930, finds chorus her favorite subject at school. She is a member of the Pop Club, Tri-Hi-Y and was vocalist for the school dance band in her junior year. Her favorite pastime activities include cooking, reading, and knitting herself sweaters. Being a talented artist, she can whip out a mean pencil or pen sketch when she is so moved.

Lawson's Jewelry is sponsoring Jeanne in her crown-seeking endeavor and Hugh Feltwell, as her manager, will "do his darndest" to see she gets the necessary points.

TWO BOWL INVITATIONS

OXFORD, O., Nov. 27.—(AP)—Players on the Miami University football team will decide Monday whether or not to accept one of two invitations to bowl games. They have been invited to play at the Clear Bowl, Tampa, Fla., and the Basin Bowl at Odessa, Texas, New Year's Day.

DAILY DEVOTIONAL

(Dr. Charles A. Edwards)

SOME DAY

Some day all doubt and mystery

Will be made clear!

The threatened clouds which now we see

Will disappear

Some day what seems a punishment,

Or loss, or pain,

Will prove to be God's blessing

For every gain.

Some day our weary feet will rest

In sweet content.

And we will prove how we were blest

By what was sent.

And looking back with clearer eyes

O'er life's short span,

We'll see with wondering, glad surprise

God's perfect plan.

And knowing that the way we went

Was God's own way,

Will understand His wise intent.

Some day—some day. Amen.

Roseburg Women Invited To Vet's Hospital Dance

Roseburg women are invited to attend the dance at the Veterans Administration Hospital Monday, Nov. 29, from 8 to 10 p. m. The theme will be a "hard time dance," so women are invited to come in gingham or what have you. There will be a premium placed on patches, rips and tears. A judging team will ascertain the most fitting costume and prizes will be awarded accordingly.

The dance is sponsored by the Special Services Division of the hospital and the orchestra to be one selected by the local musicians' union.

Eye Specialist Leaves For Study at Stanford

Dr. Kenneth H. Oakley, Roseburg eye specialist is leaving tonight for San Francisco where he will enter Stanford university for a week of special study. He is enrolled for a refresher course under Dr. Hans Barkan and Dr. Jerome W. BeAmann two of the coast's leading specialists.

Dr. Oakley received his training at Stanford prior to coming to Roseburg a year ago to take over the practice of Dr. A. C. Seely.
