"Say, Mary, I Was Shopping at Penney's Friday

... and found where we can get nice gifts and make our budget balance. I had a few minutes in my lunch hour and decided to go in and look around. I sure was surprised at the lovely gifts at such reasonable prices.

For Fred we could get one of those good looking rayon decorated shirts and a nice tie. For John a pair of pajamas all ready gift boxed.

I tell you what we'll do Mary, let's both go down and shop at Penney's, I couldn't begin to tell you of all the practical gifts they have at such reasonable prices.

The salespeople are nice to show you all the gifts they have and when I said I was just looking she invited me to come in again. I still can't get over how such nice gifts could be so reasonably priced."
