day, Dec. 2 with Circle Four as hostesses.
Mrs. E. A. Belle continued with the program on "Miners and the Christmas Lights." During the business meeting, conducted by Mrs. Lucian Cobb, it was announced that the new kitchen stove was to be installed. Ladies were asked to bring gifts to be given to the County Hospital.

A Christmas motif was carried out in the decoration for the dessert luncheon. The tables were arranged in the form of a cross with a lighted Christmas tree in the center. Candles, greenery and Christmas Caroler dolls in full red skirts completed the arrangement. Photographs were taken of the group preceding the luncheon.

An announcement was made concerning the Wesleyan Service Guild which meets at the parsonage, 124 South Kane Street, Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. Attending were the Mesdames Lucia M. Rice, A. J. Geddes, Ella Lennox, A. S. Coen, Foster Butler, Ira B. Riddle, J. H. Booth, Bayard Reed, Harrie Booth, C. K. Rand, Emma J. Weiborn, H. L. King, A. S. Feller, Earl M. Belle, W. A. MacArthur, William Hoelt.

CHURCH GROUP COMPLETES QUILT AT MEETING

Mary Martha Club of the Lutheran Christian Church met at the church last Friday for the regular potluck dinner, after which the members finished one quilt top and started another.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Ruth Lewis, who is on an extended visit in California, Mrs. Jean Barnes, presided over the business meeting and the devotionals.

Hymn "God Will Take Care of You" was sung by the group. Mrs. Barnes read for the Scripture, John 14:8-17. She also read and discussed the topic "Some Questions Jesus Asked." Mrs. Kleinfield gave the prayer.

The minutes of the last meeting and the treasurers report were read and approved. A motion was made to send two cases of canned food to an Indian Mission in Washington, and the Missionary money to an Alaskan Mission.

Mrs. Barnes demonstrated the procedure for preparing a towel and its contents in the "Send A Towel to Europe" movement. Plans were made for the Christmas party which will be held the second Friday in December. This will be the only December meeting.

GARDEN VALLEY CLUB PLANS HOLIDAY PARTY

Garden Valley Women's Club made plans for their no-hostess Christmas party to be held Dec. 16 when they met last week with Mrs. Walter Edmonds. Mrs. E. S. Booth was co-hostess. Members are requested to bring a fifty cent wrapped gift for exchange and an ornament for the Christmas tree.

Attending the meeting were the Mesdames Hugh Ritchie, Joe Guthrie, J. S. Russell, U. F. McLaughlin, Pete Sinclair, C. L. Spray, Walter Edmonds, E. S. Booth, Clifford McKay, Peter J. Pon, Albert Bashford, Graham Evers, Harding M. Knapp, John Sinclair, Myron Lehe, Emmett Walters, Ray Young, Jack Exberg, Clem Schneider, Robert Fielding, J. Clifford Hess, H. ## YONCALLA STUDY CLUB DISCUSSES IMPROVEMENT IN COMIC PUBLICATIONS

A luncheon and meeting were enjoyed at the J. N. Sparks home, Thursday afternoon, Dec. 2nd, when Mrs. Sparks and Mrs. Jennie Lasswell were hostesses to the Yoncalla Women's Study Club.

For roll call, a favorite "Comic" was given. Topic for discussion was "Comic Books for Children." Mrs. Fred Merk and Mrs. Beryl Adams both gave very interesting talks, with the conclusion, that "Comic" books should be censored and many publications banned. Children should have good magazines to read and books suitable for the age and grade. Comic books alone do not create a liking for good literature.

Next meeting of the club will be their annual Christmas party, given at the Epworth Hall of the Methodist church, Dec. 16th. The social committee with Mrs. Raphael Wise and Mrs. Harold Turpin, joint chairmen, will have charge of decorations and serving of potluck luncheon at one o'clock. There will be a program and exchange of gifts.

Members enjoying the afternoon were Mrs. John Kruse, Mrs. Edgar Richards, Mrs. Fred Merk, Mrs. Fred Reeves, Mrs. Chapman, Mrs. Dan Wright, Mrs. McDonald, Mrs. Raphael Wise, Mrs. Stacy Adams, Mrs. Hugh Warner, Mrs. Dare Kingery, and the hostesses Mrs. J. N. Sparks and Mrs. Jennie Lasswell.

CHURCH SOCIETY TO SEND SUPPLIES TO PUERTO RICO

The Missionary Society of the First Christian Church met Friday, Nov. 24 in the newly furnished church parlor. Emma Beckley, president, directed the business at which time the goals for the year were announced. Mrs. Pearl Anderson accepted the task of shipping clerk. Her immediate task was the supervision of the gift offering of towels and soap for the McLean Conference in Puerto Rico.

Mrs. Anderson had just previously directed shipment of 100 pounds of books to Hazel Green Academy, Hazel Green Kentucky for their book mobile unit that ministers to the home of the share croppers, mountain fastnesses and all interested in reading. Christmas Greetings to the Missionaries were discussed and left to the individual desires.

The study lesson was a play "On No Mistaken Errands" directed by Marguerite Munson interspersing with devotional hymns on the piano. Mrs. Munson was assisted by Mrs. Eros Osterloh, Mrs. Valdean Bridges, Mrs. Mable P. Taylor, Mrs. Jeanette Boucoci, Mrs. Valetta L. Taylor, Mrs. Elsie Coffell, Mrs. Edith S. Ackert, Mrs. Emma Beckley, Mrs. Marguerite Munson.

The next Mission date is Dec. 31. Topic is Our Canal Zone and Virgin Islands, led by Mrs. Martha Knox. All ladies are invited.
