DIAL-LOG

Tonight at 7—that half hour thriller-diller whodunit-shedunit-bedunit-the butler dunit—I arrest YOU BECAUSE—routine hits its usual time slot under the title of "Let George Do It."

In answer to inquiries which are sure to come—The usual Monday-Friday night "Taylor Talks" have disappeared into the winter mist, due to a small matter of cancellation. Cancellation, ugly word. Maybe "expired" sounds better, huh? Happens in the best of program schedules. Hear Henry J. for the last time, tonight.

John Nesbitt's story-telling line-up for the remainder of the week is as follows: (3:30 to 3:45 p. m.)
Tuesday—"Treasure Salvage."
Wednesday—"Lost Treasure."
Thursday—"Johnny Sager."
Friday—"The Island of Manga Reva."

Got a deep-freeze at your house? Best take a quick glimmer into its depths, on account tomorrow night at 7:30, Nora Charles does herself proud and wins a deep freeze unit when she correctly answers a telephone quiz question. But instead of a year's supply of food in the freezer, she's startled to find a body during "The Case of the Frozen Felon," which will be KHJ-Mutual Don Lee's "Adventures of the Thin Man" broadcast. Les Tremayne stars as Nick Charles, and Claudia Morgan plays his everloving wife, Nora.

Another quick reminder for tonight's listening: "Let George Do It" at 7, "Jovin Jamboree" at 7:30, "The Fishing and Hunting Club of the Air" at 8, and "You Name It" at 8:30 mania accused them of being linked with espionage and sabotage against the Communist regime.

The State Department, announcing the exchange of diplomatic notes today, said the two Americans would be withdrawn from Bucharest. But the department said the United States "rejects as ridiculous and entirely contrary to fact" the charges on which Romania based its recall demand.

The two Americans who were in effect ordered out of Romania are Col. John R. Lovell, U. S. military attache, and Henry P. Leve-
