

MRS. CUNNINGHAM IS HOSTESS TO CLUB

Mrs. Lou Cunningham entertained the Camas Valley Grange Home Economics Club at the annual Secret Pal Club party Wednesday. Holiday decorations and a lighted Christmas tree were enjoyed. Gifts were exchanged and new names were selected for Secret Pals for 1949. Lovely refreshments were served by Mrs. Cunningham to: Mrs. Bessie Wheeler, Mrs. Delphia

Wheeler, Mrs. Ethel Brown, Mrs. Bertha Banks, Mrs. Betty Milton, Mrs. Ellen Markham, Mrs. Pasco, Mrs. Brunette Wilson, Mrs. Mary Jane Kinnan and Mrs. Clair Munch.

Two beautiful cakes were presented by the club to Mrs. Cunningham in appreciation for her work as Home Economics chairman.

DIAL-LOG

What a wonderful, wonderful pre-Christmas and Christmas Day! It's "all over but the shouting"—and the shouting will be in order when 1949 joins us in all its glory. You've a week now to extend many a "Happy New Year" greeting and participate in still more holiday celebrations. Or can ya take it?

This week, John Nesbitt will represent 1948's favorites on "Passing Parade" (3:30 to 3:45 p. m. Monday through Friday). Tuesday, "The Benevolent Counterfeiter;" Wednesday, "Strange Dreams;" Thursday, "Simon Bolivar;" Friday, "Borrowed Timers," the stories of Clarence Day and Ernest Henley.

Tonight at 7, a man who collects incriminating bits of evidence against his "friends" as a hobby, hires KHD-Don Lee's George Valentine for "protection." During the dramatization of the "Let George Do It" mystery, George unravels a plot of murder and blackmail.

A 25-year-old cook, an amateur detective, will be rewarded for alertness during the Tuesday, December 28 (7:30 to 8 p. m.) broadcast of KHD-Mutual Don Lee's "Adventures of the Thin Man." He found the Charles' "stolen" Frazer-Manhattan car! Mr. Moore found the car two weeks ago, unoccupied and parked on a side street. He was en route home from his work at one of the forum cafeterias in St. Louis. He recognized the scratches, then the dent in the fender—a mark that is probably on thousands of cars in the country these days. But Mr. Moore was sure it was Nick Charles' vehicle. He taped a note to the handle: "Is this the Thin Man's car?" Yes, it was! And for finding it, Mr. Moore will get one just like it. Some people get all the breaks.
