Musical Duo Held Over
For Another Week at 99

Current sweethearts of local night clubbers are Ann and Len Nash, two-piece musical combo, featured at Club 99 during the past two weeks and now held over by popular demand.

"Music and entertainment as you like it" is their slogan, and the duo produce this fare on a Hammond electric organ as played by Mrs. Nash and on a set of drums manipulated by Nash. This duo has played in various night clubs in and around Portland. In addition to providing instrumental fare, they both sing. Before coming here, they played at the El Rancho Tule, near Tulelake just south of the Cal-Oregon border. The couple make their home in Portland.

VAGRANTS 'FLOATED'

Three persons, arrested on charges of vagrancy, pleaded guilty in Municipal Court Friday, and Acting Judge R. L. Whipple sentenced each to 10 days in the city

KRNR
DIAL-LOG

After a rugged weekend such as you've probably never had before, you may feel this is no time to toss the burden of remembering KRNR's program changes your way... but such is the way of radio. We can't stop for inventory or any such thing... the programs just go on and on... hour after hour... day after day... month after month... year after year... EEEEEEEK! (Now this is just our own personal "Blue Monday" reaction... not to be absorbed as a listener attitude, by any means!)

Here's a squint at tonight's scheduling and its changes: 6:30, "Fishing & Hunting Club of the Air;" 7, "Jovin Jamboree;" 7:30, "The Cisco Kid;" 8, "Let George Do It;" 8:30, "You Name It;" and introducing a new 10:30 p.m. feature—"The Adventures of the Falcon." This 10:30 to 11 p.m. time period each week night will feature a half hour of dramatic entertainment in the form of mystery and intrigue for your late evening listening enjoyment. Each night at 10:00 we'll have Columbia Masterworks for the music lovers among you... symphonic favorites for your every mood.

You'll hear "Music and Music" tomorrow morning at a new time: 10:15 a.m. Tomorrow night, "Incredible, but True" will be heard at 7 p.m., "Music You Remember" at 7:15, "Box Thirteen" at 7:30, "Can You Top This?" at 8 and "The Thin Man" at 8:30. And so it goes... lotsa changes.

More information and misinformation tomorrow... See you then.
