MARCIA MOEN HAS DINNER PARTY ON THIRTEENTH BIRTHDAY
Marcia Moen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Moen, celebrated her thirteenth birthday at a charming six o'clock dinner party at her home on East Washington street Monday evening. Pink carnations and a pink and white decorated birthday cake graced the prettily appointed table.
Covers were placed for Marcia, guest of honor, and Suzanne Lee, Carol Neureiter, Sue Wissing, Leola Laurenzen and Elva Boyd.
Lovely gifts were presented to Marcia. Games were played and prizes were awarded to Sue Wissing and Elva Boyd.
MRS. YOUNG AND SON CELEBRATE AT BIRTHDAY PARTY ON DECEMBER 31st
Mrs. Al Young of Tennille celebrated her birthday December 31st by entertaining a group of children in honor of her son, Albert, who was a birthday present to her thirteen years ago.
Those attending the enjoyable party were Hazel Young, Carole Jean Melsenbach, Herbert Young, Virginia Norville, Don Nuzum, Martha Hinch, Jim Nuzum, Janis Dowdy, Ray Cook, Elton Swift and the guest of honor, Albert Young.
The V. V. Harpham home on East Douglas street was the setting for an informal reception from two to five o'clock New Year's Day honoring Mr. Harpham's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Bonebrake, on their fiftieth wedding anniversary.
A profusion of flowers and potted plants, gifts to the honored guests, were used about the rooms.
Incidental music was furnished by Mrs. Clarence Rand and Cecil Pierce and by Mrs. Cecil D. Pierce, who sang, "Loves Old Sweet Song."
The serving table, covered by a beautiful lace cloth, was centered with a bouquet of golden chrysanthemums, flanked by matching tapers. Some of the silver and cut glass used on the table were treasured gifts of the Bonebrakes early home.
Appropriately decorated wedding cakes were served by Mrs. L. R. McTaggart and Mrs. Cecil Pierce. Mrs. William M. Anderson presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Alice Carter of Eugene and Mrs. J. B. Patrick, close friends of Mrs. Bonebrake, served the coffee. Miss Joyce and Miss Janet Harpham assisted about the rooms and Mrs. Maurice Weber had charge of the guest book.
Seldom does a mother have the honor to be present at a daughter's Golden Wedding, but that privilege was enjoyed by Mrs. Bonebrake's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Hein, who was also an honored guest at the reception. Both Mrs. Bonebrake and Mrs. Hein wore attractive dresses of flowered print. Mrs. Bonebrake wore a beautiful orchid corsage and Mrs. Hein wore a corsage of peach-colored rosebuds.
W. W. Bonebrake, born in a log cabin on Deer Creek near Dixonville of pioneer parents, John Star and Mary E. Bonebrake, who had then recently settled there after crossing the plains by the trail. He has lived all his life in Douglas County. He was employed by the Southern Pacific Railroad Company for 42 years, serving as a passenger-conductor at the time of his retirement, Feb. 1, 1936.
He was married to Miss Clara B. Hein, January 1, 1899, and they have made their home in Roseburg the entire 50 years since their marriage. An only son, Wesley, died in 1937. Clara B. Hein came to Roseburg with her parents, Adam and Elizabeth Hein, in 1893. Her father operated the old Critser and Rast flour mill for a time. Mr. Hein died some 15 years ago, but Mrs. Hein, who is 93 years of age makes her home with the Bonebrakes. She enjoys fair health and insists on doing the dishes at the family home and doing other light work about the house.
Mrs. Bonebrake is a member of Liliac Circle, Neighbors of Woodcraft, Rebekah Lodge, W. B. A., Ladies Auxiliary O. R. C., and the Baptist Church.
Guests enjoying the affair with Mr. and Mrs. Harpham in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Bonebrake and Mrs. Hein were: Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Bonebrake, George Bonebrake, Mrs. William Germdier (brothers and sister of Mr. Bonebrake), Mr. and Mrs. Frank F. Brand, Mrs. Alice Carter, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. John Atterbury, Carrie Dixon, Paul Bonebrake Fischer, Mr. and Mrs. William M. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice F.

Vocation Classes Resume Sessions At Senior High

This week saw classes in session at the Senior High School for both apprentice carpenters and apprentice electricians. The carpenters met Monday evening for organization under the leadership of Charles Poirot, instructor, and M. M. Romig, supervisor. There are 13 enrolled at the present time but several more are expected because the course is compulsory for apprentices, and Walter Dage, business agent of the Carpenters Union, warns apprentices they must attend the class.
The class will meet on Wednesday and Thursday evenings each week at 7 p. m. in the basement rooms at the Senior High School.
The electricians' class is well under way, having met the week before Christmas and this week received its supply of books. The members met on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7 p. m. in the High School under the leadership of Sam Reed, Eddie Wyatt of the Junior High School staff will assist Reed for a few weeks of special instruction in mathematics.
Both of these classes are part of the on-the-job training offered apprentices in trades, and veterans who are eligible are tuition free. For others, tuition is charged.
The program is designed to aid those men who are unable to attend college or special schools to get the related information necessary to meet apprenticeship requirements and to become better trained journeymen. It is a cooperative program of several agencies: The local schools, the local trade unions, the State Department of Vocational Education, the Veterans Administration, and the State Apprenticeship Council.
Persons other than veterans are welcome in the courses as are journeymen who feel they can profit by additional study under good leadership.

Naval Air Reserve Unit Authorized for Salem

SEATTLE, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A naval air reserve unit has been authorized for Salem, Ore., to operate as an auxiliary of the unit at the Sand Point Naval Air Station.
An announcement from the Sand Point station said the new unit is expected to attract reserve officers in Oregon who had been unable to come to Seattle for training.
Capt. C. F. Greber, commanding officer of the Naval Air Training Unit here, also will command the Salem Auxiliary.
Salem was selected after Portland and Hillsboro were considered for the Oregon unit.

Alabama Court Knocks Out Ban on Negro Voting

MOBILE, Ala., Jan. 8.—(AP)—Alabama's Bollinger Amendment, one of the last barriers to Negro voting in the South, was ruled unconstitutional by a federal court yesterday.
The amendment required prospective registrants for voting to be able to understand and explain the U. S. Constitution to the satisfaction of county registrars.

Auto License Laggards Rounded Up by Police

PORTLAND, Jan. 8.—(P)—Motorists are being arrested at the rate of 50 a day for not having 1949 license plates, Portland police reported today.

Court's Decision Opens Way To Escape From Torture by Telephone

By HAL BOYLE
NEW YORK.—(AP)—Remember the name of Walter Curry. Immortality crooks a finger his way. Let the common man bugle his fame.
Who is Walter Curry? He is a kind of junior Abraham Lincoln, heralding the pattern of a promised freedom for the new slaves of the mechanical age.
In more prosaic terms Walter Curry is a Superior Court judge in Providence, R. I. And he has just made a provident decision—a decision provident for the health of all mankind.
Only Wednesday it was that Judge Curry ended by judicial decree a case of what four lady complainants called "torture by telephone."

The feminine quartet complained that a fifth lady for six years had annoyed them several times a day by calling them on the phone. They said she greeted them with "curses, epithets and Bronx cheers."
And what did Judge Curry do? Why, he forbade the fifth lady from ever phoning her four neighbors again under pain of "drastic punishment."
This decision may at first glance appear to be only a minor footnote in the long history of jurisprudence. But it could end up by making Walter Curry the best known judge since Sir William Blackstone laid down his English law.
For he has struck a clear sharp blow for freedom from one of the greatest mental perils of the twentieth century—"torture by telephone."

Tosses Children From Bridge, Leaps After Them

NEW YORK, Jan. 8.—(AP)—A man tossed his young son and daughter from a bridge about 175 feet to the ground yesterday and then jumped after them. The man and boy were killed. The girl was critically injured.
Deputy Chief Inspector Patrick Kenny of Brooklyn said an unidentified motorist on the Kosciuszko bridge, spanning Newtown Creek between Brooklyn and Queens, saw the incident.
Kenny said the man was identified as Gabriel Nicoletti, 37, a truck driver, of Long Island City, Queens. The boy was Arthur, eight, and the girl, Gail, three.

FEP Bill Will Be Put In Legislative Hopper

PORTLAND, Jan. 8.—(AP)—An Oregon Committee for Fair Employment Practices, organized here this week. Plans to introduce a bill at the State Legislature to require employment without discrimination.
Millions hailed as a blessing this small instrument, the telephone. When it was first brought to widespread public attention by Don Ameche after earlier research by an obscure putterer named Alexander Graham Bell.

What a joy it held at the beginning—trying to love one's voice and helping dear hearts to span the distant miles! It brought people closer together than they had ever before. It shrank continents—and the world—to the size of the room. A person could speak into it and be heard at almost any point in the globe he chose.
And the blessing, like blessings often do, became a kind of curse, too. The telephone made it possible for a big mouth to be heard anywhere and everywhere.

It got to be an instrument that brought people together who didn't necessarily want to be together. It reached the point where thousands of people hated to answer its bell, because they thought, "Oh, oh, here's trouble."
It forced people against their will to talk to people they didn't want to. It became an instrument of solicitation and unwanted invitations.
People began to jump when the phone bell rang. Thousands and thousands of people with names like "Phil Graves" were plagued with practical jokers who woke them at night to say: "This is the cemetery calling."
Liberty Was Opened
Subscribers began demanding unlisted numbers. They didn't want to be in the phone directory. The new dial phones helped some also—they tended to cut down the calls from people who couldn't count up to ten.
But Judge Curry has opened a real way to liberty from "torture by telephone." He has shown the law offers ready relief from this invisible plague. Yet it still takes a brave man to go to court to end his annoyance, and it takes time. Congress could be helpful. What is really needed is a federal statute, for the problem goes be-

Legislation Discussed By Assn. of Employes

Roseburg Chapter, Oregon State Employes Association, at its monthly meeting Thursday night in the Knights of Pythias Hall, read and discussed the O. S. E. A. legislative program relating to parity pay, the Civil Service Commission-proposed pay scale and the requested appropriation for an emergency fund to cover wages.
A report of the Dec. 18 board of directors meeting was given by J. W. Vaughn, director of District 3. A thorough report was submitted by the auditing committee.
The legislative retirement program will be discussed at the next meeting. Five proposed amendments to the O. S. E. A. constitution and by-laws were read and will be voted upon at the February meeting for ratification or rejection.

Czech Reds Ordered To Attack Head of Church

ROME, Jan. 8.—(AP)—Czechoslovak Communists have orders to open a tough attack on the head of the Catholic Church in Czechoslovakia, a high-ranking Czech exile said yesterday.
In an interview published by the newspaper Popolo, Vaclav Mayer, a Socialist, who was Czechoslovak food minister before the Communist seizure of power, said orders have gone out from the Cominform (Communist National Information Bureau). He likened it to the campaign against the church in Hungary, where the primate, Josef Cardinal Mindszenty, has been arrested.
Msgr. Josef Beran, Archbishop of Prague, is to be the target of the new attack, Mayer said.
