RECENT BRIDE IS HONORED AT SHOWER

One of the most outstanding social events of the season was graciously given by Mrs. Vivian Laurance of Dillard for the recent bride of the week, Mrs. Phyllis Buell Paroz. The guests were greeted and seated by Mrs. Mercy Buell, grandmother of the bride. Preceding the feature of the entertainment Mrs. Margaret McCord played two piano selections; Mrs. Emily Fosback sang a lovely solo accompanied by Mrs. Helen Buell; a recitation was given by Helen Heinbach with Vivian Laurance assisting at the piano.

The hilarious group presented the mock wedding while Mrs. Imogene Appleyard played the background music. Shirley Barnes Siegel tripped in with fantastic steps to light the candles, followed by Ina Lee Heinbach as flower girl, strewing crepe paper everywhere; the preacher, none other than Virginia Laurance; ring bearer, Warren Heinbach, carrying the ring on a huge velvet pillow; Otha Barnes as best man, dragging in the bridegroom, Betty Jorgensen, by a chain; Helen Heinbach as bridesmaid came bounding in with her bouquet of celery tops; the debutant, Lena Burke led in the lovely blushing bride, Carol Sue Barnes carrying her bouquet of kitchen utensils; the elegant mother, Betty Ferguson, was escorted by the poor rejected crippled war veteran, Ruby Peterson. The wedding ceremony was a riot of fun.

The many wonderful gifts were opened and displayed by the bride and her attendants. Rosa Heinbach was in charge of the guest book. The refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table with lace cloth, crystal holders and tall white tapers. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. Elleen Andrus and Mrs. Florence Hercher pouring with Mrs. Ruth Laurance serving the cake; also assisting were Virginia Laurance and Betty Ferguson. Others enjoying the affair were Mesdames: Cora Evans, Grace Barnes, Bertha Armitage, Mabel Brooks, Anne Wilson, Zella Jorgensen, Matt Smith, Lulu Post, R. C. Autry, James McAlpine, Sharon Hercher, C. E. Brittain, Mary Lee Walker, Francine Laurance, Goldie Brown, Catherine Hayden, Robble Cooper, Elveta Barnes, Belle Clark, Cornelia Smith, Gladys Johnston, Eliza Clayton, Carol Hercher, Bonnie Zeller, Evelyn Nickerson, Myrtle Burch, Beatrice Davis, Ara Laurance, Opal Gurnett, Bobbie Oakley, Judy Dyer, Bessie Goltz, Marjorie Handy, Helen Buell, Rosa Heinbach.

POTLUCK DINNER HELD ON SUNDAY

Members of the Christian Church at Sutherlin enjoyed a potluck dinner Sunday, after the morning services. Later in the afternoon the election of officers for the ensuing year, was held. Mrs. Harry Barnes was elected Bible School superintendent and Royal Aboene, Jr., will be the assistant superintendent. Mrs. Harry West will be Bible School secretary and Frankie Holgate will hold the office of assistant secretary. Mrs. Bill Webber is to be Cradle Roll superintendent.

MISS WILLIAMS IS BRIDE OF JAN. 5TH

SEASIDE—In a candlelight setting at her parents' First Avenue home, Miss Carolyn Williams became the bride of Phillip Hickman Wednesday evening. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Williams.

The Rev. Walter Wagner read the single ring ceremony in the presence of 20 guests.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. For her wedding she chose a gray satin two-piece dress with pink accessories. Her nosegay was fashioned of pink roses and white bouvardia.

Miss Elsie Fern Smith, bridesmaid, was gown in blue wool crepe and carried a nosegay of white gardenias and bouvardia. Dick Curwell of Seaside served as best man. The bride's mother was gown in a Roosevelt blue crepe dress.

Following the ceremony, the bride and groom cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. Edna Williams, the bride's grandmother, presided at the reception table.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Vern Drager and Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Williams and son, Dale, all of Portland.

Mrs. Hickman attended high school in Seaside, and her husband attended school in Montana. They will be at home near Gearhart. The groom is employed as a logger.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mrs. Edna Williams of Looklinglass. The latter has been visiting in Seaside with her two sons, Alva and Chester Williams, since the death of her husband, Jess Williams.

LADY ELKS TEEN-AGE GROUP INVITED TO PARTY-DANCE FRIDAY

The third of a series of weekly party-dances to be sponsored by the Lady Elks for the Teen-Age group will be held at eight-thirty o'clock Friday night, Jan. 14, at the Elks temple.

Teen-agers of Elks and their invited guests, besides the Teen-Agers sponsored by Elks, all of whom have been given membership cards in the Teen-Age Club, are most cordially invited to enjoy the affair.

Mrs. Paul K. Ryan, president of the Elks, reports that the first two dances were very successful with large attendances.

Plans are being made by the Lady Elks committee to sponsor dancing classes in the near future for the younger members of the group, who desire to learn to dance.

Natural Gas Pipeline In Canada Projected

CALGARY, Alta., Jan. 12.—(AP)—A northwest natural gas company plan to build and operate a $100,000,000 pipeline from Alberta to the Pacific Coast was disclosed at a hearing here.

The offer, made to the Calgary Gas Company and the Northwest Utilities, Ltd., of Edmonton, hinges on the Seattle firm's obtaining permission to export gas, it was disclosed in a letter read at a hearing on Alberta gas reserves.

Falson A. Dixon of New York, president of the Seattle Company, said the firm plans to transport additional natural gas into Alberta for distribution here. He said contracts have been drawn with three oil companies operating in Alberta and that contracts with additional companies are being sought.

Painting Teeth No Barrier to Decay

DENVER, Jan. 11.—(AP)—Bad news for kids: Just because your teeth have been treated with sodium fluoride, you can't eat all the candy you want.

In fact, says Dr. Herman Beck, chairman of dental medicine at the University of California, there are going to be more decayed teeth than ever before.

The reason: people think that when their teeth have been painted with sodium fluoride, they can eat all the candy they want.

That's not so, said Dr. Beck, here to address the Denver Dental Association. The only way to prevent cavities, he said, is to cut down on sweets.

Forrestal to Resign But Expects no Acceptance

WASHINGTON, Jan. 12.—(AP)—James V. Forrestal said after a talk with President Truman yesterday that he expects to stay on as Secretary of Defense.

Forrestal told reporters he expects to submit his resignation soon as a matter of routine, but that he does not expect it to be accepted.

He added, in response to questions, that he wants to continue in his cabinet post and expects to do so.

Forrestal said he talked with
