MISSIONARY SOCIETY HAS INTERESTING MEETING

On the last day of 1948 the Missionary Society of the First Christian Church met in the Friendly parlor. The ladies were surprised with a fine piano contributed from the home of Mrs. Stanton for an indefinite period. It will be thoroughly enjoyed. After a short business meeting, Mrs. Alice Barker led the devotions, emphasizing the Christmas spirit. She was assisted by Mrs. Elsie Coffell.

By the use of wall maps in detail Mrs. Martha Knox presented the lesson study on The Canal Zone, Virgin Islands and the Philippines. The conclusion of which is the fact none of these places have had adequate missionary work. Thus ending the study course of the past six months, namely "On Our Own Doorstep." The next study will follow the life in China, on which subject several books and pamphlets were distributed for preliminary reading.

An additional feature was the reading of a letter from the American Mission for Lepers in Africa, and a clipping from the News Review entitled "Santa Claus Jr. Scared but Indian Saved the Toy Show." The Indian proving to be Chief Flying Cloud—the Rev. Dr. Lucas, a Cherokee Indian from Oklahoma. The next meeting date is Jan. 28, 10:00 a. m. Potluck dinner after tending

The afternoon program will begin with the discussion topic "What Do You Know About China?" This discussion will be followed by the picture "In the Chinese Manner."

All ladies are most cordially invited to the interesting sessions. Those in attendance were Mrs. Emma Beckley, Mrs. Alice Barker, Mrs. Elsie Coffell, Mrs. Jeannette Boucock, Mrs. Violet Taylor, Mrs. Martha Knox, Mrs. Gladys Peterson, Mrs. Valdean Bridgess, Mrs. Edith S. Ackert.

FULLERTON P. T. A. HAS INTERESTING DISCUSSION TEA

Fullerton P. T. A. held a very enjoyable discussion tea Monday afternoon at the schoolhouse with a large attendance of members. Participation and interest were so gratifying that by popular request, these round table discussions are to become a regular feature of future meetings in addition to the regular monthly sessions.

Brief reports from the National P. T. A. magazine highlighted the afternoon. Mrs. E. S. Hall touched upon articles, "When Their Feelings Are Hurt," and "Hero Worship—Wise or Unwise." Mrs. J. M. Boyles discussed "Child Spending" and "The Truth About Report Cards." "The High Art of Belonging" was reviewed by Mrs. N. D. Johnson.

During the reports and the lively discussion which followed, the hostesses, Mrs. B. A. Young and Mrs. Clifford Smith, served refreshments to the guests, who were seated around the table where a festive air was supplied by the beautiful azaleas and silver service. Also at this time the P. T. A. appropriated $150 to the school to be used for Visual Education equipment.

Error Voids Vote Merging Three School Districts

MADRAS, Ore., Jan. 13.—(AP)—Three school districts which voted to merge last summer are going to vote on the question all over again Jan. 22. The original balloting—which approved the merger—was voided after attorneys ruled that insufficient notice had been given for the election. The error was discovered when the district tried to float a $175,000 bond issue to build 12 new classrooms. The merger involves the Madras Grade School District, The

New Era District, and the Warm Springs Rural District. If the merger is again approved, the district must vote again on the bond issue, too.

Wife Who Slew Husband Will Plead Insanity

BAKER, Ore., Jan. 12.—(AP)—Mrs. Florence Scott, charged with manslaughter in the slaying of her husband, Clyde E. Scott, pleaded not guilty to the charge in circuit court here. Her attorney said she proposes to show in evidence that she was insane or mentally defective at the time of the alleged commission of the act charged in the indictment. No date has been set for the trial. Scott was killed at his home here early on the morning of Nov. 3 by a shot from a rifle. He was a railway mail clerk and commander of the Baker National Guard unit. Mrs. Scott was released three days after the shooting on $2,500 bail.
