He reported temperatures reached 25 below zero and at that time the heater in the plane gave out, while he and his co-pilot, Sgt. Sims of Dallas, Tex., reflected on the warm weather that the good old South should be having. It took three hours' preparation to get the plane ready for the air in Medford Tuesday, as the wings and propellers were covered with ice. Major Pfeiffer will leave for Germany, Jan. 20, where he will be stationed for three years. His wife and two small daughters will join him later.

Football Rules Undergo Changes

PALM SPRINGS, Calif., Jan. 14—(AP)—There won't be much difference in the matter of whole-sale substitutions running on and off college football fields next fall, but the game will be a little more exciting and a little less rough.

Such were the deductions today as members of the inter-collegiate rules committee headed homeward after another tussle to improve the grid regulation book.

The highly controversial free substitution rule rated top attention. Here are the new statutes on the subject:

Coaches will not be permitted to send one player at a time into the game while the clock is running.

They will be able, when the ball changes hands, to send in as many players as desired on either team. But subs must be in and ready to play while the clock is running and before the customary 25-second period elapses from the time the referee placed the ball in position.

Encouragement to offense is contained in these rules:

A player can elect to run a punt from scrimmage if the ball is caught in the end zone. This used to be an automatic touch-back and the ball was placed in play on the 20-yard line.

If a punt receiver gets nailed in the end zone, back of the goal line, it still goes as a touch-back and the ball goes to the 20-yard line. If he is tackled on the one yard line, that's where it goes into play.

Passing behind the goal line was encouraged. A new rule says if a legal forward pass is incomplete in the offensive team's end zone, it is to be ruled an incomplete pass instead of a safety, as the old college rule stipulated.

RINGS CURTAIN—Al Cliff, 150-pound Portland fighter, will start tonight's boxing show at 8:30 in a six-round battle with Eddie Johan of Klamath Falls. Cliff won four fights in previous engagements at the Roseburg Armory.

AMSTERDAM, Jan. 14—(AP)—Borculo, a town of 6,200 near Nijmegen, has decided to come to the aid of its American counterpart of Warren, Arkansas. Both places have been hard hit by tornadoes. Borculo in 1925 and Warren several weeks ago.

A committee has been formed to raise funds from Borculo residents and to discuss further relief measures.
