Roseburg Chapter of Eastern Star held open meeting Thursday evening at the Masonic temple for installation of the 1949 officers. Installing worthy matron was Nello Motschenbacher, assisted by installing worthy patron, A. J. Ellison; installing chaplain, Mattie Lee Taylor; installing marshal, Harold Turner, and installing organist, Frances Lintner. New officers installed besides Mrs. Ellison, worthy matron, and Mr. Motschenbacher, worthy patron, were: Eleanor Unrath, associate patron; Christine Miceli, secretary; Ruth Laws, treasurer; Gladys Wiley, conductress; Beatrice Churchill, associate conductress; Thelma MacArthur, chaplain; Bonita Wikoff, marshal; Myrtle Burr, organist; Lois Stewart, Adah; Grace Robertson, Ruth; Harriet Hampton, Esther; Ellen Chitwood, Martha; Jewel Anderson, Electa; Rhea Church, warder, and Bill Tyler Evans Jr., sentinel.

Courtesy girls were Patricia Hallcraft, Mildred Fisher, Faye Jones, Norma Hercher, Evelyn Kelley, Maude Pattison, Georgia Reynolds, Lavelle Young, Marietta Powers, Cleo Hlatt, Alma Kelley and Agnes Fullerton. The choir, under the direction of Cloyd Riffe, sang "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte and "The Star" by Rogers, accompanied by Lois Stewart. Soloist for the evening was Mrs. Grace Deets, accompanied by Mrs. Myrtle Burr. A highlight of the evening was a special feature by Roseburg Bethel of Job's Daughters. A social hour followed and lovely refreshments were served in the dining room at tables carrying out the New Year's motif with starpoint dolls, dressed in starpoint colors, confetti and candles. Mrs. William C. Woods and Mrs. Theo. Bond were chairmen of the decoration and refreshment committee. The chapter will meet January 20 at eight o'clock at the temple to celebrate the 63rd birthday of the chapter. A special program will be given in honor of the charter members and the Past Matrons. Refreshments will be served at the close of the social hour. Members and visiting members are invited.
