MR. AND MRS. CRAWFORD ENTERTAIN AT PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Crawford of Yoncalla entertained a group of their friends at a Watch Night party, New Year's Eve, at their home south of town. Decorations followed the theme of the Yuletide season, with mistletoe, and the traditional ice.

The evening was spent in playing cards. The ladies prize for high score in five hundred was won by Mrs. Herman Schosso, and consolation prize to Mrs. Ed Bill. High score for men was made by Herman Schosso, with low score claimed by Bob Crawford. In the game of crazy eight, Mrs. Jim Fretwell took the head prize and Mrs. Louise Snider the consolation.

Since January first is the birthday of a guest, Hermit Miller, he was pleasantly surprised when presented with a decorated birthday cake to the accompaniment of the famous old "Happy Birthday" song by all the guests.

Delicious refreshments were served to Mr. and Mrs. Ed Bill, Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schosso, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Thiel, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Kidwell, Mrs. Louise Snider, Bill Bill, Hermit Miller, Miss Phyllis Wright, Richard Letson and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Crawford.

CAMP FIRE EXECUTIVE TO BE HERE THURSDAY

Miss Berta Howell, regional field advisor for Camp Fire Girls, will be honored Jan. 19 with a luncheon at 12 noon at the Shammar by council members. Miss Howell will spend several days in Roseburg conferring with local Camp Fire workers.

Following the luncheon, which is in charge of Mrs. Morris Bowker, a meeting will be held for council members at the Chamber of Commerce. All council members are requested to attend as special emphasis is to be placed on council activities by Miss Howell during the afternoon session.

Thursday evening Miss Howell will meet with members of the Guardians Association at 8 o'clock at the First Presbyterian church. This will be for guardians and assistant guardians and a good attendance is requested. It is expected that Friday will be devoted to conference work with committees of the local council. Miss Howell visited Roseburg in the fall of 1947 and brought information of considerable importance to workers of the council and Guardians' Association.
