Chinese Student Will Be Present at BPW Dinner

An opportunity to get acquainted with Miss Caroline Chen, a student of China, will be provided members of the Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club at a dinner next Monday. The Chinese girl is taking postgraduate studies at Oregon State College on a scholarship provided by the local group.

Mrs. Jean Whittenberg, president of the Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club, said the national organization had suggested the scholarship idea. The local group is the only one in Oregon to sponsor a scholarship, providing Miss Chen with a year's tuition.

Principal speaker at the banquet honoring Miss Chen will be Ava B. Milam, dean of the School of Home Economics at Oregon State College, who will speak on "The Challenge to the Women of the World."

The dinner will be at the Roseburg Country Club. Members of the BPWC and their guests are invited. Reservations may be made with Miss Genn Luley at Miller's Department Store.

Rhododendrons and azaleas are not found in the New World south of the United States.

Reservations for private skating parties are available at the Rainbow Skating Rink, Winchester.

K D N D DIAL LOG

Guy Lombardo's invitation to play at the forthcoming presidential inaugural ball evoked a discussion among members of his band. They recalled that Guy, whose "Meet the Boss" is a Saturday night feature on Mutual-Don Lee, had played at President Roosevelt's inauguration ball in 1933. When a song plugger asked Lombardo whether it will be a formal affair, the band-leader lifted his eyebrows and replied: "Formal! Why even the tuxedos will wear tails!"

Bandleader Phil Harris and his crew will attend too, y' know... and since the members of his band are usually subjects of ridicule in creating bigger and better laughs all 'round, the question arose: "Do they have tails for the affair?" Phil replied: "Egads, yes, but maybe they won't show..."

It's "The Case of the Deadly Dream" tonight at 8:30 on Mutual-Don Lee's "Adventures of the Thin Man" broadcast starring Les Tremayne and Claudia Morgan as Nick and Nora Charles. "The Lone Wolf" hits the 10:30 slot, followed at 11 by Lyle Fenner and his master production, "Rhythm Rendezvous." Standard greeting on the show is: "Greetings, Gates, let's palpatite!" Terrific musical selections from there on in.

Robert Young will be the host and Joan Leslie will star for "The Family Theater" broadcast of True Boardman's psychological drama, "World Without End" tomorrow evening at 6:30. The story concerns the reactions of a young war widow who finds out that she is to become a mother. The solution to her problem comes about through a series of fantasy flashbacks. Stay tuned then for Bill Henry and the News at 6:55, followed immediately by the Roseburg Chamber of Commerce program, "Cesaro" and "Pencho" will read from their Spanish dialect dictionary at 7:30, with "What's the Name of That Song?" melodic brain-teasers following at 8.
