SECOND ANNUAL ART EXHIBIT IS LARGE TWO-DAY AFFAIR

The Roseburg Woman's Club second annual art exhibit held Friday and Saturday at the Methodist Church parlors with Mrs. Kenneth Ford as general chairman, proved to be of great interest throughout the county as a large number of exhibitors participated and 500 interested persons visited the show.

Mrs. Ford was assisted with arranging the show by Miss Margaret Carr, art instructor in the Roseburg schools, and several boys and girls from art classes of Junior High School. Mrs. Jack West, Mrs. Leland Van Allen, Mrs. Clifford Smith, Mrs. H. C. Berg, Mrs. R. H. Solt, Mrs. L. G. Twombly and Mrs. Roy Byrd assisted on the general committee.

Hostesses included the president, Mrs. George E. Houck, Mrs. H. N. Jacobson, Mrs. Roy Entler, Mrs. J. M. Boyles, Mrs. Paul Elliott, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. Armour Murdoch, Mrs. Kenneth Bushey, Mrs. C. E. Roberts, Mrs. T. B. Garrison, Mrs. Roy Byrd, Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. Lucian Cobb, Mrs. W. R. Brown, Mrs. Scott Layman, Mrs. W. H. Carter, Mrs. Clyde Carstens and Miss Alice Ueland.

Exhibits included art work from both Senior and Junior High School, which has been sent this week to Portland to enter the state contest sponsored by Meier and Frank; water colors, oils, pastels, pencil and charcoal sketches, china painting, woodcarving, metal work, weaving, ceramics, textile painting, photography, bead work, wood turning, plaques,

Camp Fire Girls handcraft and sculpture work.

Exhibitors included Dorothy Merreen, Carol A. Stingley, Henry C. Ford, Mrs. Violet Wilshire, Mrs. Leland Van Allen, Mrs. Cleo Andrus, Mrs. Kenneth Ford, Mrs. C. S. Briggs, Mrs. Victoria Ploss, Mrs. Frederick Chapman Jr., Alan Knudson, Mrs. Emily Johnson, Amy Robinson, Mrs. Billie Forrest, Carla Lee Taylor, Hazel Anderson, Mrs. H. G. Jeffers, Mrs. L. L. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tjomsland, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Beaman, Rev. W. A. MacArthur, Mrs. O. Buehner, Veterans from the Roseburg Veterans Hospital, Sonya Van Allen, Dorothy Spies, Mrs. Clyde Conrad, Mrs. Mary Paulson, Mrs. Jack West, R. S. Olson, Mrs. Vera Lang, Fred C. Reese, Bobby DeVoe, Mrs. J. F. Sheldon, Mrs. Roy Barnhart, Mrs. Strang, Mrs. Norma Magnus, Helen Bales, Mrs. D. L. Taylor, Mrs. Wolske, Bert Shoemaker, Camp Fire Girls and Junior and Senior High art students.

The general committee has expressed appreciation to residents throughout the county for their enthusiastic response both in supporting the exhibit and attending the affair. The Woman's Club plans to sponsor the project as an annual affair every January. Persons interested are most cordially invited to join the exhibitors in displaying their art work at these annual shows.

NEW OFFICERS ARE INSTALLED FOR WOMEN'S CIVIC CLUB-CANYONVILLE

The Women's Civic Club of Canyonville met Thursday afternoon at the L. O. O. F. hall with 36 members and guests in attendance. A short business meeting was held. The library committee reported having secured a small building owned by the city for temporary use as library room. There have been 400 books donated to date.

Mrs. James Gault, district president of the Federation of Women's Clubs, gave a reading on the dog-wood blossom, the club flower. She installed the new officers for the year.

Mrs. Jack Maris, retiring president, received the Past Presidents pin as a gift from the club. Mrs. Maris presented a myrtle-wood gavel to the incoming president Elvada Grant. Other elected officers and their duties included: Vice-president, Dorothy Chappell; secretary, Dorothea Marshall; treasurer, Joan Hayes; finance, Ruth Bingham; chaplain, Verne Worrall; music, Dorothea Marshall; membership, Beatrice Boyle; publicity, Olive Hyman, and youth, Verna Vredenburg.

A trio of "Harmonettes" from the Canyonville Bible Academy sang a group of songs accompanied by Mrs. Robert Schaffer at the piano. Miss Eleanor Stevens, state librarian, gave a very interesting and instructive talk on libraries. As a project before the club at present is establishing a library at Reedsport. Her discussion was very helpful.

At a beautifully appointed tea table, refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Jack Maris, Mrs. Frank Marlin, Mrs. Bertha Melchior and Mrs. William Worrall.

Later in the day, a no-hostess dinner was served at Ford's to the guest speakers and a number of Canyonville club members. A round-table discussion on maintaining and operating libraries was held.

Among out-of-town guests from Roseburg were Mrs. John Gross, Mrs. Clyde W. Carstens, Mrs. Harry F. Hatfield, Mrs. E. A. Pettay and Mrs. E. L. Tauscher.
