Music Program At Methodist Church Sunday Announced

DR. MORRIS H. ROACH

The growing interest in sacred music is evidenced by the increasing attendance at the monthly music festivals of the First Methodist Church and the First Presbyterian Church, held in union every fourth Sunday night.

Guest artists for the festival Sunday night, Jan. 23, at 7:30 p. m., were announced this morning by the minister the Rev. W. A. MacArthur as follows:

Mrs. Wendell Johnson, accomplished violinist and wife of the music instructor at the Senior High School, will present the intriguing "Sonata" by George Frederic Handel. She will be accompanied by Miss Helen Goode, talented teacher of the Roseburg school system. The Ladies Chorus of the Eastern Star will sing a group of three numbers. This group, directed by R. Clody Riffe, is becoming one of the outstanding choral groups in the city.

Additional choral selections will be given by the First Methodist Choir together with several solos and duets, both vocal and instrumental.

Dr. Morris Roach of First Presbyterian Church will bring the brief scripture meditation. The public is invited to attend.

- The program follows:
- Mrs. Wendell Johnson, Guest Violin Soloist
 - Miss Helen Goode, Piano Accompanist
 - Eastern Star Ladies' Chorus
 - R. Clody Riffe, Choir Director
 - Mrs. Gordon Stewart, Organist
 - Mrs. Myrtle Burr, Pianist
 - Organ Prelude, "Little Star" Moussergsky
 - Mrs. Gordon Stewart, "My God and I" Sergei
