MISS PRISCILLA MAE WADE

Dr. and Mrs. Charles B. Wade, Roseburg, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Priscilla Mae, to Jeffery Charles Currier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph L. Currier, of Glendale, Ore.

The wedding will take place Feb. 5 at the home of the bride's parents. Dr. Morris H. Roach, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, will perform the ceremony.

Both Miss Wade and Mr. Currier are students at University of Oregon, where the latter is a senior in the School of Business Administration. Miss Wade is pledged to Alpha Chi Omega sorority and Mr. Currier is a member of Sigma Nu fraternity.

COUNTRY CLUB PARTY TO BE DELIGHTFUL AFFAIR THIS EVENING

Roseburg Country Club members and their invited guests are anticipating a delightful social to-night at eight o'clock at the clubhouse. The golf committee of the women of the club will sponsor the party. Cards and various types of entertainment are planned for the occasion. Refreshments will be served at eleven o'clock.

The women of the club met Thursday morning at the clubhouse with score prizes in the contract bridge play going to Mrs. R. D. Bridges, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Mrs. Roy Sedell and Mrs. A. F. Micelli. The caterers present were to Mrs. Bridges and Mrs. H. C. Stearns.

Luncheon was served at noon to Mrs. E. A. Pearson, president; Mrs. K. D. Adams, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Mrs. R. D. Bridges, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. Roy Sedell, Mrs. Vernon Briggs, Mrs. Walter Schoenleber, Mrs. Paul Syron, Mrs. R. H. Savage, Mrs. G. W. Marshall, Mrs. H. C. Stearns, Mrs. Bill Courter, Mrs. A. F. Micelli, Mrs. M. C. Cassel, Mrs. Roy Cummins, Mrs. Carl E. Wimberly, Mrs. Sid Comfort, Mrs. Maurice L. Hallmark, Mrs. Joe Perreault, Mrs. Kenneth Bailey and her sister, Mrs. J. J. Roberts, of Portland; Mrs. Bert Corkrum, Mrs. Harold Schmeier, Mrs. Clyde Knight, Mrs. Edward Murphy, Mrs. Walter Bridges, Mrs. W. C. Callison and Mrs. James Hughes.

Plans were made for the Valentine Brunch to be held February 10th at the clubhouse for members and their invited guests. Mrs. J. F. Dillard and Mrs. K. D. Adams are co-chairmen of the affair. Admission to the affair will be by ticket only.

ANNALORIS WARD PRESENTS CHARMING CONCERT MONDAY NIGHT

The concert given at the Baptist Church Monday evening, January 17 by Annaloris Ward, soprano, assisted by Janice Plummer, pianist, was enjoyed by a large, enthusiastic audience. Miss Ward has an attractive stage presence. Her voice is a brilliant, clear soprano which she handled with surprising versatility. She generously responded with several encores.

Janice Plummer gave a group of interesting piano numbers displaying real musicianship and was warmly encored.

Miss Gladys Strong was a most competent accompanist. All together this concert was a revelation to the audience—a program by hometown artists of whom the community may well be proud.

TIMBERLINE TRAIL RIDERS ENJOY SOCIAL NIGHT

A very hilarious and enjoyable evening was held at the Collins ranch on the Garden Valley Road in Wilbur last Wednesday.

To help keep up the enthusiasm of the Saddle Club members the Timberline Trail Riders had a potluck supper and movies were shown by their president, Leroy Collins. After the movies several western songs were sung and played by Raymond and Barton Wilder of Oakland.

A short meeting was held and thrown open for discussion regarding a place for a clubhouse site.

Several of the members east of Sutherlin have been riding during the snow storms and all said they might have frozen toes but they certainly enjoyed their rides.

The next meeting will be a business meeting at 7:30 p. m., Feb. 2, to be held at the home of George Cornish on Central Ave., in Sutherlin.

The Timberline Trail Riders are now going into their third year and welcome any horseman who wishes to join their club. Many social times are planned for this summer and new members are invited. Anyone wishing to join may place application with the board of directors, who are: "Zip" Lemke, Rt. 1, Sutherlin, Barton Wilder, Oakland, and Dorothy Collins, of Wilbur.

ZULEIMA NILE CLUB MEETS AT POTLUCK SUPPER FRIDAY NIGHT

Zuleima Nile Club met at a delicious potluck supper and business session Friday evening at the lovely home of Mrs. Frank Worland in Laurelwood. Covers were placed for Mrs. L. E. Henninger, Mrs. Sig Fott, Mrs. Philip Duran, Mrs. Ira Poole, Mrs. Henry Halvorsen, Mrs. Henry Cook, Mrs. D. B. Kesner, Mrs. K. D. Adams, Mrs. Harry Stearns, Mrs. H. R. Reynolds, Mrs. O. W. Harrah, Mrs. William T. Evans, Mrs. Dulce Jones, Mrs. Mary Ann, a guest from Portland, and the hostess, Mrs. Worland.

Mrs. Henry Cook, vice-president, had charge of the meeting, at which time it was decided to change the club name from Umpqua Daughters of the Nile to Zuleima Nile Club.

The next meeting will be January 25, at a one-thirty o'clock dinner-luncheon and sewing session at the Masonic temple with Mrs. Philip Duran and Mrs. H. R. Reynolds, co-hostesses.

TWELVE AND WON CLUB MEETS AT LUNCHEON AT RICHARDSON HOME

Twelve and Won Club met Tuesday at a delicious 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. N. E. Richardson. The buffet was cleverly decorated with a potted avocado plant and avocados. Mrs. Fred Ritzman assisted in the serving. A lovely birthday gift was presented by the club to Mrs. Trozelle. Mrs. Thella Webber won the prize for the day, with Mrs. Trozelle winning the second prize.

Those present were: Mrs. Gladys Peiter, Mrs. Fred Ritzman, Mrs. E. Kenneth Jones, Miss Bernadine Prince, Mrs. E. Prince, Mrs. B. Hargis, Mrs. Thella Webber, Mrs. Fred Hargis, Mrs. E. G. Trozelle and the hostess, Mrs. Richardson.

The next meeting will be Feb. 1 at the home of Mrs. B. Hargis, 1302 West First Street.

ENGAGEMENT OF CAROL LEWIS IS RECENTLY ANNOUNCED

Carrie Dixon, who is in San Francisco awaiting a ship sailing to take her to Honolulu, has received word of the recent announcement of the engagement of Carol Lewis of Honolulu and Forest Ward Carlisle, also of that city.

The bride-elect is the daughter of Captain Howard Lewis, U. S. Navy, retired, and Ethel Sheridan Lewis and is a granddaughter of the late Story Sheridan and Jessie Leavens Sheridan of Roseburg. The bridegroom-elect is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Ward Carlisle Sr., of Evanston, Ill.

The wedding will be March 26. The couple will make their home in Honolulu.

While in Honolulu, Carrie Dixon will be the houseguest of Mrs. Howard Lewis.

MRS. CHESTER MORGAN HONORS MISS CASEY AT SOUTH AMERICAN PARTY

The South American motif was beautifully carried out by Mrs. Chester Morgan Wednesday evening, when she entertained a group of friends at a charming seven o'clock dinner party at her lovely home in Laurelwood in compliment to Miss Helen Casey, who is leaving next week for Panama and South America on a vacation trip.

Guests attended the affair attired in South American costumes. The serving table, covered with a gay-colored print cloth was centered with a large airplane, encircled with gifts from the group to the guest of honor. Tiny airplane favors marked places for Miss Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, Mrs. John Young, Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. C. B. Wade, Mrs. P. M. Lee, Mrs. L. E. McClintock, Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Mrs. D. B. Bubar, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. Ivan Pickens, Mrs. Frederick J. Porter and the hostess, Mrs. Morgan.

Contract bridge was in play during the evening with Mrs. Porter winning high score; Mrs. Bubar, second high score, and traveling prizes going to Mrs. Bubar and Mrs. Dillard. Following the card play, Mr. Morgan took colored motion pictures of the group.

While in Panama, Miss Casey will visit her cousin, Col. Raymond Bell, and his wife and their daughter, Judy. Col. Bell is a former Roseburg resident. Miss Casey will make the trip by plane.

MR. AND MRS. JENKINS HONOR ANNALORIS WARD AT CHARMING PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jenkins entertained at a charming party Monday evening at their lovely home on Riverside Drive in Laurelwood in compliment to Miss Annaloris Ward, who had been presented in a vocal concert earlier in the evening at the First Baptist Church.

Guests invited by Mr. and Mrs. Jenkins to honor Miss Ward included: Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Brand, Miss Gladys H. Strong, Mrs. Douglas Waite, Miss Helen Casey, Miss Naomi Scott, Miss Kay Holmes and Miss Shirley Helweg, gowned in pink gowns, fashioned off the shoulder and with full skirts, lighted the candles. They were matching pink mitts and a band of chrysanthemums in their hair.

Miss Janice Plummer played the traditional wedding marches and accompanied the trio, Miss Peggy McCoy, Miss Dona Mears and Miss Harriet Booth, who sang, "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a white satin gown fashioned with a court train. The yoke of net was outlined with embroidered roses. The sleeves were wrist length. Her finger-tip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap of seed pearls.

She carried a shower bouquet of pink roses centered with a large orchid. Miss Helen Solnicka was maid of honor and wore a pink taffeta gown. She carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and wore a band of matching flowers in her hair. Miss Mary Anne Caskey and Miss Edith Mitchell, bridesmaids, wore pale green dotted taffeta. They carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums with matching flower headbands.

William Chalmers was best man and Don Caskey and Jack Loomis were ushers. Both the bride's mother and the bridegroom's mother wore black afternoon gowns with black accessories and corsages of gardenias.

A reception followed in the church parlors. The three-tiered wedding cake was topped by a bride and groom standing under a heart-shaped archway. The bride and bridegroom cut the cake, which was served by Mrs. George Caskey and Mrs. Virgil Lee, a sister of the bride. Miss Cynthia Turner and Miss Norma Johnson presided at the punch bowl. Miss Donna Bashford, sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride chose a suit of brown plaid with brown accessories. Her corsage was an orchid. Following a honeymoon to Carmel, Calif., Mr. and Mrs. Bashford are now at home to their friends at their apartment on West Cass street.

Covers were placed at a beautifully appointed table for Miss Ward, guest of honor, her aunt, Miss Kay Ward, Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Mrs. John Young, Miss Naomi Scott and the hostess, Mrs. Casey.

A pleasant social evening followed the dinner hour.

MRS. LESTER NIELSEN ENTERTAINS D. A. R. AT DESSERT-SUPPER

Mrs. Lester Nielsen graciously entertained the D. A. R. Tuesday evening at her attractive home on Moore street at a seven-thirty o'clock dessert-supper. Daffodils and tall lighted candles formed the decorations.

Covers were placed for Mrs. C. P. Caylor, regent, Miss Margaret Page, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. George M. Brown, Mrs. Douglas Waite, Mrs. Roy Entler, Mrs. Ray S. Petrequin, Mrs. Earl M. Bliehe, Mrs. Orrin Baker, Mrs. D. N. Busenbark, Mrs. Leslie Chapman of Yoncalla, Mrs. Orville French of Sutherlin and the hostess, Mrs. Nielsen. Later in the evening Miss Helen Busenbark joined the group.

Mrs. Nielsen opened the program by singing "Indian Love Call" after which Miss Margaret Page, who was chairman on the subject, "American Indians," gave an intensely interesting and instructive talk. She based her remarks on the book by John Collier, "The Indians of The Americas," and traced their origin into this country via the Bering Straits. She had numerous Indian articles and pictures, which she had brought back from Alaska, besides exhibiting Indian articles, which she had collected from other sources. Her program was especially fine and was greatly enjoyed by the members.

The next meeting will be February 21 at seven-thirty o'clock in the evening at the home of Mrs. William Anderson with Mrs. C. L. Branton, co-hostess. Mrs. Nielsen will be program chairman.

FORSYTHE GUILD HAS ENJOYABLE MEETING ON THURSDAY EVENING

Forsythe Guild of the First Presbyterian Church met Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Orlena Slattery on South Main street with Mrs. Florence Lozier, president, in charge of the business session. Mrs. Reba Hartley and Mrs. W. M. Campbell conducted the devotion. Mrs. Slattery gave a talk on Alaska.

Mrs. Slattery and Miss Elmer Sher served lovely refreshments later in the evening to: Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Mrs. Reba Hartley, Mrs. Luella Whitehead, Mrs. Regina Sawyers, Miss Gertrude East, Mrs. Paula Anderson, Miss Alta Simonson, Mrs. Florence Lozier, Mrs. Verna Carothers, Miss Vera Fredrickson and Miss Ina Farnsworth.

CAMP FIRE ADVISOR VISITS LEADERS HERE FOR TWO DAYS

Miss Berta Howell, regional field advisor for Camp Fire Inc., completed her two-day stay in Roseburg Thursday night and will visit Ashland in the next few days. She conferred with council and members and guardians during her local visit.

Following a luncheon at the Shalimar Wednesday noon, council members met at the Chamber of Commerce for round-table discussion of Camp Fire problems.

Miss Howell urged support by Camp Fire council and guardians in the annual Community Chest drives and explained regional and national tieups in the Camp Fire program. She urged standardization of work on ranks through the local committee of awards. The visiting field advisor was impressed with the growth of Camp Fire in this community in the past year. During her visit in November of 1947 membership was 310 and at present, the registration nears the 700 mark. In addition to this large growth in membership is construction and operation of the girls summer camp at Tyee, a part time executive director, Mrs. Betty Gibson for Douglas county and office space, donated by Miller's Mercantile.

Many problems in relation to guardians and groups were discussed at the meeting of Miss Howell and the Roseburg Guardians Association Thursday evening at the First Presbyterian Church. This meeting was well attended according to officers of the association.
