Throne Shines as Bootblack Stand

After descending from what is probably the world's gaudiest bootblack stand, a customer is helped on with his coat by Genaro Esposito, enterprising Neapolitan bootblack. The stand is a throne, apparently "liberated" by Esposito, that once stood in the royal palace of Naples. Police wink at his unorthodox use of the ornate relic and even overlook his overcharging. KRNR
DIAL-LOG

All the atmosphere of a super-sophisticated night-club comes to you tonight at 7:30 on "Club 1490" with the added attraction of a phone call to be made which may net some listener a fine gift. At 8 tonight, "Straight Arrow" and his horse Fury tangle with a group of cattle rustlers who find they "shoulda" stood in bed" during the presentation of "Cattle Train." Another villain-chaser hits the 8:30 spot in the form of none other than "Boston Blackie."

The March of Dimes campaign is still under way in our town, good people. And if you were to give up something—some little something, like your membership dues to the Saturday-Night-Backgammon-and-Load-Your-Own-Dice-Society — you might make another buck or two available toward letting someone walk once more. How 'bout that? A public-service feature of this station has taken the form of March of Dimes appeals of late through spot announcements and transcribed shows.

A quick run-down of our weekly schedule shows that KRNR gives out with approximately 5 1/2 broadcast hours of public service each week, besides time for special appeals such as the Polio Campaign. We'll gladly place an emergency announcement for you, provided it is first cleared through the local Police Department. On the other hand, if little "Tudine" loses her pet cat or dog, we'll tell all the people—for free. (A charge is made based on local spot rates to all adult pooch-losers.) Most lost and found announcements are usually taken care of on the Fred Meyer-sponsored "Book of Bargains" heard Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 10:30 a. m. Social listings are aired on "The Party Line" on those days at 2 p. m.

Lars Larsen's the guy with the mail-pull at KRNR! His appearance on the 6:30 p. m. National Guard Show last Friday drew favorable comment from many listeners. He'll appear again tomorrow night—same time. Walter Abel will star in "The Goose Hangs High" on tomorrow night's "Great Scenes from Great Plays" program at 7.

Latter Day Saints
Workers Dated Here

Elder and Mrs. J. L. Verhel, Portland, will be in Roseburg to meet with local members of the reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at services scheduled for 10:30 a. m. and 2:30 p. m. Sunday, Jan. 30, at the Roseburg Seventh Day Adventist Church.

Besides holding an important executive position with a large Portland utility concern, Elder Verhel, district president, freely contributes much time, in company with his wife, ministering to scattered members and small congregations throughout Oregon and Southern Washington.

Public Highway Spree
Draws 30-Day Jail Term

Frank Merle Kenyon, 65, Camas Valley, was committed to the Douglas County Jail for 30 days, upon a plea of guilty to a charge of being drunk on a public highway when he appeared in Justice Court Wednesday. Justice of the Peace A. J. Geddes reported.
