

Child Uses Toy Phone to Signal Return of Voice

NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—(P)—The little girl lay quietly in the hospital bed and stared at the red toy telephone a relative had left by her side.

Five-year-old Gail Nicoletti had survived almost certain death.

Last Jan. 7 her deranged father hurled her six-year-old brother from 150-foot high Kosciusko bridge in Brooklyn, flung Gail after him, and then dived over himself. Father and son died.

Life remained in Gail's battered body. Under the most careful medical care she was nursed back to the point where doctors were sure she would recover.

But she had lost her voice in the shock of the experience.

As she lay there yesterday, a nurse heard her make a whimpering sound.

Then she stretched out frail hands and spun a dial on the phone which rang a bell. She put the receiver to her ear.

"Hello, Mommy," she said distinctly, "this is Gail."

Oil Cost Drop Spells Gas Rates' Reduction

PORTLAND, Jan. 28.—(P)—A drop in heavy oil cost means a reduction in gas rates for Portland Gas and Coke Company consumers in Oregon in about two weeks.

C. H. Gueffroy, vice-president, said the rate per thousand cubic feet of gas will be cut 6 cents. He said consumers would be saved $500,000 a year. The company had recently instituted a new space heating rate increase.

Gueffroy explained the firm's tariff schedule provides for an increase or decrease of 12 cents per thousand cubic feet for each 3 cent change in the cost of a barrel of oil.

Wallgren Slated For U. S. Job, Truman Says

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(P)—President Truman said yesterday he had something in mind for U. S. old Senate friend former Gov. Mon Wallgren of Washington but he is not ready to announce it. He made the comment at his press conference.

Wallgren told reporters Tuesday he is "very apt" to take a government job.

Northwest Leads In Development Of Forest Areas

PORTLAND, Jan. 28.—(P)—The forest engineer of the West Coast Lumbermen's Association said yesterday that Oregon and Washington took Bunyan-sized strides ahead in forest development last year.

W. D. Hagenstein told the Association's annual stockholders meeting that the Pacific northwest's lumbermen lead the nation in improved management and protection.

He listed as accomplishments of forest owners in 1948:

1. The largest increase in West Coast tree farms since the program began in 1941. Some 489,448 acres were converted to tree farms; 60 more foresters employed, bringing the total in private employment to 600.
2. The year brought the best fire season in history, with only 6,562 acres burned in the Douglas fir region.
3. Short-wave radio for fire protection was adopted by 20 companies.
4. Reforestation by helicopter expanded, with 3,000 acres reseeded that way.
5. Utilization of wood improved, with 100 operations salvaging leftover wood from previous logging. Today, he said, 25 per cent more wood per acre is utilized than a decade ago.

Lt. Gen. Eaker Warns On Russia's War Potential

LOS ANGELES, Jan. 28.—(P)—Lt. Gen. Ira C. Eaker says Russia has a huge war potential and a fifth column in this country that is "the biggest and most powerful of any place in the world."

The wartime chief of air staff, now retired and living in Beverly Hills, told the Kiwanis Club that "more Moscow money is being lavished to undermine the American government than was used in China."

With America's eight-hour, five-day week and 140,000,000 population, it would be difficult to build as much war potential as Russia could with 180,000,000 population, working 15 hours six days a week, he said.

"This country," he continued, "should have a sound plan of campaign ready. We would need an overwhelming air power, supplemented by adequate ground and naval forces, and we also would require better trained leadership than we had in the last war."

U. S. Nabs Red Organizer Wanted in Canada

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—(P)—The Justice Department said yesterday the FBI has arrested Sam Carr, former organizing secretary of the Canadian Communist party.

The announcement said Carr was arrested in New York.

It described him as a key figure in Soviet spying in Canada.

He played an important part, the department said, in the spy network which was exposed in September, 1945, after some testimony by Igor Gouzenko, a Russian embassy cipher clerk.

FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover said Carr is wanted in Canada for violation of the official secrets act.

Hoover said that a royal commission, set up in Canada to investigate spy rings, decided that Carr took an active part in recruiting Soviet agents.

The night hawk is not a member of the hawk family, but a species of goatsucker.
