The story of parents who sacrificed their own ambitions and pleasures in order to give their children all of the world's advantages, will be heard when Lewis Beach's unusual drama, "The Goose Hangs High," with Walter Abel in the starring role, is presented on "Great Scenes from Great Plays" tonight at 7. "Music in the Modern Mood" will be heard 8 to 8:30.

A portable wire-recorder took most of us by surprise Wednesday afternoon when the gentleman operating the machine "played back" some choice bits of conversation it had picked up between various members of the staff in their everyday inter-office communications. Oh—so red the face—and so cautious hereafter!

"Saddle Serenade" hits the 6:45 slot tomorrow morning with more of your Western favorites. "Telephone Request" as usual at 9:30, "Man on the Street" at 11, a special message from the Commander of the DAV at 1, and "Take a Number" at 7.

Our three regular Saturday night "Wrestling Parade" announcements, Hank Henry, Al Cordon and Del McKay, went as usual last week to the Roseburg Armory for the regular broadcast of the Wrestling Matches. Air time is 9:30—and so, at 9:25, they attempted calling-in to the station control board. . . . Deader'n a mackerel she was, although everything was set up correctly. Investigation disclosed that our remote line was lacking about twenty feet of its usual length and lay neatly rolled-up in a corner. Carpenters working on the building had mistaken the wire for an old electric-light wire extension, and had simply snipped it off. Hence, no "Wrestling Parade" on the air last Saturday night.

If all goes well, the "Wrestling Parade" will definitely be heard tomorrow night in its regular 9:30 to 10:30 time period. Count on it, as a matter of fact!

Union Asks $1,000,000 To Finance Recruiting Drive. WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—(AP)—The executive board of the CIO-Amalgamated Clothing Workers was asked today to vote $1,000,000 to help organize employees of department stores and retail clothing chain stores. The union hopes to attract another 600,000 workers in its big organizing drive, requested by the CIO leadership. The CIO shifted jurisdiction over these workers from the Wholesale, Retail and Department Store Employees Union. The CIO convention expressed dissatisfaction with the accomplish-

Scout Council's Annual Meet Set

Oregon Trail Boy Scout Council is holding its 24th annual meeting, Sunday in conjunction with a huge family potluck dinner and program at Eugene. The business meeting will be held at 4 o'clock just prior to the dinner. After dinner an interesting and entertaining program is planned including an illustrated talk given by Veteran Scouter Carl Moline of Oregon City. Scouter Moline has been scoutmaster of Troop 220 of Oregon City since 1922. He and his troop have distinguished themselves by participating each year in a two-week adventure trip somewhere in the Pacific Northwest. This year they are planning to camp at Crater Lake. Colored slides used in his talk are taken on his many adventure trips with his troop. The potluck dinner and meeting will be held at 5 o'clock at McArthur Court in Eugene. Attendance of over a thousand is expected according to reservations already received in the scout office. Prizes will be given to units for attendance records.

Confab Slated On Jobless Benefits

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 28.—(AP)—Possibility of avoiding the usual argument over unemployment compensation and industrial accident benefits was seen here today when officials of employer groups and labor leaders agreed to talk things over. They will meet here Monday night to agree on a legislative program. Labor wants unemployment compensation benefits raised from $20 a week for 20 weeks in any one year, to $25 a week for 26 weeks. It wants industrial accident benefits boosted 30 percent. Employers don't think benefits should be increased very much. And employers want their payroll taxes reduced. If agreement is reached, it would remove one of the Legislature's most controversial issues.

Expense List From Presidential Aspirants Asked

SALEM, Jan. 28.—(AP)—Four Senate Democrats introduced a bill yesterday to make presidential candidates in the Oregon primary file campaign expense statements with the Secretary of State. The bill is the outgrowth of last May's presidential primary battle in Oregon between Thomas E. Dewey and Harold Stassen. Democrats attempted to force Dewey and Stassen to file statements, but the Attorney General ruled the campaign expense statement law does not apply to presidential candidates. The new bill provides that if such a candidate fails to file his expense statement, he would be barred from appearing on the following general election ballot. The need for a waterproof material around bathroom showers, which first became popular in the United States after World War I, greatly spurred clay tile production and sales.
