Miss Evelyn Roper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Roper, of Roseburg, became the bride of Fred Cady, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cady of this city, at nine o'clock the evening of January 8 at the Baptist parsonage on South Main street. Rev. H. P. The bride wore a steeple dress of white with black accessories and a corsage of carnations and pink roses. Miss Carolyn Kobernik was maid of honor and wore a gray suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses and carnations. Dick Roper, brother of the bride, was best man.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. James Tidwell. The tiered wedding cake, topped by a miniature bride and bridegroom, graced the center of the beautifully appointed table. The cake was cut by the bride couple and served by Mrs. Charles Sommerfeld.

The bride was graduated from High School in Pueblo, Colo., and is now employed as a cashier at the Roseburg Safeway store. The bridegroom received his education in American River, Ida., and following his discharge from service with the U. S. Marines, he came to Roseburg, where he is engaged in the lumber industry.

Education Bill, Readied For Introduction in Legislature, Calls for Ultimate Millions

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 28.—(AP)—The House Education Committee has agreed to introduce the basic school support bill of State School Superintendent Rex Putnam. It would increase state aid to schools from $50 to $85 per year for each school child, or from a total of $17,000,000 a year to $32,000,000.

But the committee members said that didn't mean they would vote for the bill. They just agreed to introduce it to get it printed. Some committee members said they didn't like the idea at all. Putnam told the committee $75,000,000 must be spent in Oregon in the next five years to bring Oregon schools up to standard. The bill also would set up a $2,000,000 annual fund to help poor districts construct new buildings.

In order to make the bill pass better, a provision was attached to refer to the whole measure to the people at the next special or general election. The legislative interim committee on game introduced its bill to give the Game Commission more power and to reorganize the commission, it boasts that the legislature does about taxes, it will be bad news for the taxpayer. But the people have the last word because any tax bill can be put to a vote by the people by the referendum method.

Rep. Ralph T. Moore, Coos Bay, chairman of the House Taxation Committee, warned that whatever the school board does about taxes, it will be bad news for the taxpayer. But the people have the last word because any tax bill can be put to a vote by the people by the referendum method.

They are in the dog house publicly. They have a "tremendous" public relations job to do. They don't know how to sell cars, or have forgotten. For eight years they have been riding a "gray train" that has reached a dead-end. The time is past when they could sell any used car even without any old title off.

The day of salesmanship has returned—yes, the buyer's market has arrived. Dealers, the executive committee at the convention heaped on credit curbs the blame for declining sales. One of the final acts of the convention was to approve the action of its executive committee in asking the Federal Reserve Board to liberalize its time payment rules. A car buyer now has from 15 to 18 months in which to pay the balance. The dealers would like to see this extended to 24 to 30 months.

Plans for an intensified highway safety campaign were formed. This would emphasize rapid extension of high school driver training.
