State Public Welfare
Ups January Relief Pay

PORTLAND, Jan. 31.—(P)—The State Public Welfare Commission is adding $75,650, to its January budget because of the long cold spell.

The Commission said relief demands have mounted with the cold, and that the money would be distributed among counties which have run short of funds. The original commission budget was for $497,850.

Administrator Lea Howard said there were more relief cases than since 1940. She reported $1,563,028 in relief went to 35,091 persons in December.
