"I'll be glad to tell anyone who writes to me what Kal-O-Dex has done in my case," says A. H. Siemens, 915 North Ave., Reedley, Calif. "I was so constipated that food would bloat me up like a tick. William R. Cloud Given High Post In Typo Union

William R. Cloud, son of Mrs. Cora Cloud, 808 Mill Street, and brother of L. L. Cloud of Canyonville, has recently been appointed international representative of the International Typographical Union in the Seattle area, according to a report in a Tacoma Union paper. The lengthy feature article tells of Cloud's early life learning the printing business in shops about the size of "Ma's kitchen," until he went to Seattle, where he landed a job with the P-I newspaper.

The article tells of Cloud's great efforts in helping all printers he came in contact with. He first started his activities with the union, a number of years ago, at which time he was elected secretary-treasurer of Seattle's 700 printers. He was active in bringing Bremerton, Tacoma, Vancouver, B. C., Mount Vernon, Sedro Woolley, Everett, Bellingham, Yakima, Port Angeles, Aberdeen, Longview, Kelso and Vancouver, Wash., printers in closer affiliation with the Seattle printers.

He attended Washington State Conference of Typographical Union meetings and was prominently associated with the Union activities. He later went to University of Washington for evening class instruction in labor relations and wasn't in class long before he was asked to give lectures on unionism and the Typographical Union.
