

Atlantic Pact Would Divide World, Destroy Prosperity Of U. S., Wallace Declares

SEATTLE, May 10. — (P) — "You can't have your public power—and a pact for war, too."

In the opinion of Henry Wallace, the leader of the Progressive Party, here to act as moderator for the "Mother's Day International Peace Forum," made the statement while criticizing the proposed North Atlantic Pact.

More than 3,000 persons attended the Sunday night gathering held in the Civic Auditorium. The one-time vice president and cabinet member said the North Atlantic Pact "would completely destroy our prosperity and our people; . . . would divide the world—not unite it; . . . would ruin Europe."

Then he added: "The administration is proposing a new Columbia Valley Authority."

Hawaiian Strike Leads To Embargo In U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 10. — (P) — The Association of American Railroads Monday issued an embargo against almost all freight destined for export to Hawaii through West Coast ports.

Arthur H. Gass, chairman of AAR's car service division, said the embargo was issued at the request of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

It is designed to prevent a tie-up of freight cars at West Coast ports due to the longshoremen's strike in Hawaii. Gass said that because freight cannot be unloaded at its destination, steamship lines are not taking on further cargo.

Military or government freight for loading on ships operated by the Army or Navy is exempted from the embargo, he said.

Coal Strike In Britain Spreads To More Mines

MANCHESTER, England, May 10. — (P) — A Communist-supported wildcat strike spread to 20 more nationalized mines in the rich Lancashire coal fields Monday leaving a total of 50 pits and 36,000 men idle.

Lancashire normally produced 300,000 tons of coal a week, about one-twelfth of Britain's total production of a fuel which is vital to the nation's economic welfare.

The walkout began a week ago in one pit, among 260 men who wanted free coal for their own use—normally given to many British miners. It spread when two foremen entered the pit on maintenance work. Miners called this "blacklegging."

Only 15 mines, employing 14,000 men, still were working in the coal rich county today.

Marathon Staged By Bank's Burglar Alarm

PHILADELPHIA, May 10. — (P) — Officials of the National Bank of Oney opened their bank Monday morning and neighborhood residents took the cotton out of their ears.

It was all a matter of a burglar alarm. The alarm went off last night and police rushed to the bank. They could find no robbers—neither could they shut off the alarm. The control mechanism was inside the time vault and the lock had been set on Friday for 61 hours.

Bank officials were waiting at the vault door when the time finally elapsed.

Commons Passes Bill To Socialize Steel Industry

LONDON, May 10. — (P) — The House of Commons passed and sent to the House of Lords Monday the controversial bill to nationalize most of Britain's iron and steel industry.

The key note came on a proposal by the conservative opposition to reject the bill. The motion lost 330 to 203 and the bill was "read" a third time. This was formal passage.

But I say the CVA will just be a dream on paper so long as both parties are writing out blank checks for war. When they spend 15 billion dollars for arms—and then add more billions for arms—they just can't seem to find the money for CVAs—or for housing—or for social security—or for real rent control."

Three other speakers echoed Wallace's criticism of the pact. They were Sen. Michele Giua, a member of the Italian senate; H. Lester Hutchinson, Labor Party member of the English parliament, and Mrs. Paul Robeson, wife of the Negro singer.

KDND DIAL-LOG

Probably one of the most popular shows being aired over KRNR via Mutual-Don Lee is Jimmy Scribner's "Johnson Family." The week of April 25, "The Johnson Family" was placed in a new broadcast time period. "Maggie" our tape recorder, goes to work each week-day at 1:15 recording Scribner's many voices . . . and plays the show back at 3. We had so many phone calls regarding the time change that perhaps now is the time to issue a bit of information on "Radio's Greatest One-Man Show." The voice of Jimmy Scribner is "The Johnson Family"—all 22 of them. Expert mimic, he switches his characters from Papa and Mama Johnson, from Lucy to Pee Wee, from Lawyer Philpot to the Deacon, in the proverbial bat-of-an-eye.

In 1936, Scribner started on WBLM Baltimore with no less competition than "Amos n' Andy" on a rival station at the same time. An alert talent scout nabbed Scribner for WLW Cincinnati. After three weeks, WLW asked its listeners what program they liked best. Scribner showed up in 12th place. A few months later, he was fourth from the top, outranking in that area Lucky Strike, Major Bowes, Amos n' Andy. A year later, "The Johnson Family" bounced to second place. WBLM Macon recently asked listeners if they wanted the show to remain on that station. One thousand eight hundred letters—the largest response of its kind over WBLM—enthusiastically answered "Yes!"

At 7:15 tomorrow night, a special program of piano music presented by the pupils of Mrs. Homer Grow will be aired. Selections on the program include "Prelude in G Minor" (Rachmaninoff) by Carolyn Burr, and "Two Themes and Finale" (from Scherzo-Chopin) by Bob Church. "The Cisco Kid and the Case of Mama Six-Guns" titles tomorrow night's "Cisco Kid" adventures at 7:30.

Eirie Partition Guarantee Bill Arouses Irish Anger

DUBLIN, May 10. — (P) — Irish politicians buried political differences Monday in a fighting mad alliance against a British parliamentary bill which would practically guarantee continued partition of the Emerald Isle.

Premier John A. Costello, and his predecessor and political foe, Eamon De Valera, met with other politicians to plan a united campaign against the bill. Both said they would ask Irishmen in the United States and elsewhere to call protest meetings.

The bill provides that the six counties of northern Ireland will remain part of the United Kingdom unless the Northern Ireland parliament agrees to unite with the 26 counties in the Irish Republic.

Two Women Killed By Hit-Run Motorist

PACIFIC PALISADES, Calif., May 10. — (P) — Police are searching for a hit-run driver who ran down and killed two women in a crosswalk Saturday.

Dead are Harriet Wesserman, 60, Pacific Palisades, and her companion, Clara M. Brewster, Seattle.

Witnesses told police two other cars had stopped for the women when a third machine struck them, knocked them 50 feet, then raced away. The car was described as a 1933 black two-door Ford sedan. The impact smashed its right headlight and fender.

Clara Brewster was associated with the Brewster Health House, a dietary group, at Seattle for many years.
