

State Supreme Court Voids Gov. Langlie's Removal Of Adjt. General Llewellyn

TACOMA, May 10.—(AP)—A writ of prohibition issued by the State Supreme Court Monday restored, at least temporarily, Brig. Gen. Ensley N. Llewellyn as adjutant general of the state.

The order was issued by Chief Justice Clyde G. Jeffers upon application of Attorney John A. Burns, Llewellyn's legal counsel.

It orders Governor Langlie and the Board of Inquiry he appointed May 2 to show cause why it should not be made permanent.

The application was based on Burns' contention that Langlie acted illegally in removing Llewellyn as head of the state's National Guard unit.

Burns cited sections 16 and 316 of the laws of 1943, which state that the Board of Inquiry in cases of removal of officers of the state guard by the governor shall be appointed by the adjutant general—not the governor.

The law also stipulates that the governor may, on request of any officer charged by the governor with incompetence or irregularities, appoint a board of inquiry. But, Burns pointed out, the law states that the actions of such a board shall be the basis for the governor calling for a court martial, if he chooses.

Llewellyn immediately made preparations to return at once to his post as adjutant general.

The Board of Inquiry appointed by the governor, consisting of two colonels and a major general, all retired, is prohibited under the state court order from conducting hearings, examining witnesses, or hearing evidence or conducting any investigations or examinations as a board of inquiry.

Langlie is prohibited from suspending or attempting to suspend Llewellyn in his post as adjutant general.

Llewellyn, appointed to the post in February of 1947 by Democratic Governor Wallgren, said Republican Governor Langlie wanted his resignation for political reasons. Langlie denied politics had anything to do with it. The governor declared he just did not have confidence in Llewellyn's ability.

Sokolovsky Brags On Soviet Power

MOSCOW, May 10.—(AP)—Marshal Vasily Sokolovsky Monday accused the U. S. and Britain of creating "artificial tensions" in international relations and declared only the "new type" Soviet Army could win a modern war.

Sokolovsky repeated Soviet charges that the Western Allies carried out only "limited operations" against Germany during the war. He added that the Western Powers' attitude toward their Soviet allies was brought out even more clearly during the postwar period when, he claimed, they sabotaged the Yalta and Potsdam agreements.

Sokolovsky, until recently Russia's top commander in Germany, added that as a result "up to now there is no peace treaty with Germany."

His statements were made in an article written for Pravda, official Communist newspaper, on Russia's Victory Day, fourth anniversary of the day when Prime Minister Stalin proclaimed the end of the war in Europe.

DOG GONE—AND $12

LONDON.—(AP)—Sad story from Dumb Friends' League (Paddington Branch):

A Londoner wanted a puppy. He went to Petticoat Lane, Sunday morning outdoor market. He paid $12 for what a peddler described as "a nice pup."

Three days later it got sick. The man took it to a league veterinarian.

The veterinarian identified it as "a very aged miniature Yorkshire terrier with only two teeth and a growth in its stomach. It's about 12 years old," he said.

Eight weeks later it died.

T. B. MENACE FOR INDIA

NEW DELHI.—(AP)—More than half a million people die of tuberculosis in India every year, Health Minister Rajakumari Amrit Kaur recently reported.

The health minister frankly admitted that it was impossible to prevent the spread of this disease in India because of overcrowded cities and the scarcity of hospital beds and sanatoria for T. B. patients.

The Tuberculosis Association, with the cooperation of the health ministry, is embarking on an extensive campaign of anti-tuberculosis vaccination.

FARMS PREFER HORSES

COUNCIL BLUFFS, Iowa.—(AP) Fay Boyer, owner of an implement shop in Council Bluffs, says 5 per cent of the farmers in southwest Iowa still operate with horse-drawn equipment.

"And you are wasting your breath talking powered equipment to them," he says. "They have their own system of farming and reason 'why change?'"

He said there are two distinct types still using horses—the young man just starting out and the "old timer."

Watch Peddler Lacks License, Goes To Jail

State Police Sgt. Lyle Harrell reported the arrest Saturday of Ray Jones, 20, of Modesto, Calif., on a charge of selling wrist watches without a peddler's license. He was arraigned before Justice of the Peace A. J. Geddes, who reported he fined Jones $50. Jones was committed to the county jail in lieu of payment of the fine.

At the same time, Sgt. Harrell said, Jones' companion, John Hayden Smathers, 18, of Modesto, was arrested on a charge of concealing the license plates on his automobile. He also pleaded guilty and was fined $25, reported Justice Geddes. Smathers paid the fine.

FOOD SURPLUS

LAHORE, Pakistan.—(AP)—West Punjab Province, bordering India, will have a wheat surplus of more than 60,000 tons this year. Food Department Secretary R. D. Howe declared recently that for the province, the days of food grain deficits are over.

Howe added, however, that despite this surplus he could not say whether Pakistan's food commitments to India would be met. The needs of Eastern Pakistan would come first he explained.
