FULLERTON P. T. A. DISCUSSION TEA TO BE HELD MONDAY

"Movies" will hold the spotlight at Fullerton P. T. A.'s last discussion tea of the spring Monday, May 16, from 2:30 to 4 o'clock at the school lunch room. Those who have attended these teas have requested this last meeting not originally scheduled in order that they may think together on the subject of moving pictures with an article from the National P. T. A. magazine entitled "Washington polls young movie power," forming the basis of discussion.

It is hoped that many parents may find it possible to drop in for at least a part of the time to enjoy a bit of stimulating thinking over a cup of tea.

DANCE TO BE HELD AT VETERANS HOSPITAL

Dean Perrine Unit, No. 9, DAV Auxiliary, will sponsor a dance at the Veterans Hospital Monday night May 16, from 8 to 10 o'clock. All women from other group organizations are most cordially invited to assist as hostesses.

ANNUAL TEA IS CHARMING AFFAIR

One of the outstanding social events of the year for the mothers and friends of the high school students was the annual tea, given Tuesday afternoon by the Yoncalla High School. The party was held in the High School gym, where the stage was beautifully decorated with large bouquets of iris and bridal wreath. Miss Donna Loyd gave the welcome speech, with her mother, Mrs. Russel Loyd giving the response. Miss Joanne Brant played two beautiful piano solos followed by a vocal solo by Virginia Gardner. Miss Lois Ann Wright gave a fine reading with Joyce Potter following with a vocal solo.

High light of the program was a style show, with Joanne Brant taking the part of Madame Dress Right, Barbara LaMar as Daisy Mae, and Beryl McCord, Little Abner. The home economics girls modeled the clothing they had made during the year, as follows: suits by Donna Loyd, Joanne Phillips, Gloria Hudson, Shirley Highley, Mona Raper and Esther Benner; cottons, Beryl McCord, Cloma Means, May Ash, Arlene East, Joabe Phillips, Elva Arnold, Thelma Atkinson, Gloria Hudson, Virginia Gardner and Beryl McCord; pajamas: Esther Benner, Cloma Means and Mona Raper; slacks: Virginia Gardner and Beryl McCord; blouses: Donna Loyd and Beverly Lunney; dresses: Virginia Gardner, Esther Benner and Donna Loyd.

MRS. HAMILTON AND BEN KERLEE MARRY

Word has been received from Salem of the marriage of Mrs. Mary (George) Hamilton of Yoncalla and Ben Kerlee of Salem. The wedding took place May 2 at the parsonage of the Lutheran Church, with only the necessary witnesses present. Mrs. Kerlee has spent the past 20 years in Hayhurst Valley near Yoncalla, rearing all of her children in that community. She is the mother of Mrs. Dick Thorpe of Yoncalla, and has hosts of friends who wish her a very happy new life with her new husband in Salem. Mr. Kerlee has a small cafe in Salem on State Street. The bride and groom have known each other for the past 45 years and were school-day sweethearts.

OLD RESIDENCE—One of the oldest residences of Douglas County, pictured here, was built by Joseph Champagne, 1851 pioneer, on his farm in the French Settlement at Melrose. Mr. Champagne was one of a colony of French Canadian immigrants who came to Douglas County from the California gold fields, many of whose descendants still live here. Walter Kruse is the present tenant of the old place. (Picture by Paul Jenkins).

ALL-DAY MEETING IS HELD BY GROUP

The Missionary Ladies of the Yoncalla Church of Christ held an all-day meeting in the church Friday. Work was done on a quilt to be given their pastor as a wedding gift. The pastor will take the marriage vows July 1. Esther Benner and Donna Loyd. Jim Davis, accompanied by Joanne Brant on the piano sang a solo, followed by an accordion solo by Eunice Wilson. Vocal solo by Donna Loyd, closed the program. A delicious lunch was served by the girls to about 60 guests, closing a very memorable party.
